PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (the “EEA”). For these purposes, a “retail investor” means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (Directive 2014/65/EU) (as amended, “MiFID II”), or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2002/92/EC, as amended, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II, or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive (as defined below). Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (the “PRIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIPs Regulation. The expression “Prospectus Directive” means Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended, including by Directive 2010/73/EU), and, in the case of each Member State of the EEA that has implemented such Directive, includes any relevant implementing measure in the such Member State.

BASE PROSPECTUS dated July 23, 2018

Credit Suisse Group AG

Senior Debt Issuance Program

Under this senior debt issuance program (the “Program”), Credit Suisse Group AG (the “Issuer” and, together with its consolidated subsidiaries, the “Group”) may from time to time offer to sell senior notes (“Notes”) denominated in any currency agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer (as defined below).

The Notes will be issued in uncertificated form, will constitute direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and will rank pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and without any preference among themselves, except for any preference as is provided by any mandatory applicable provision of law.

The Notes may be issued on a continuing basis to one or more of the Dealers specified under “General Description of the Program” and any additional Dealer appointed under the Program from time to time by the Issuer (each, a “Dealer” and, together, the “Dealers”), which appointment may be for a specific issue or on an ongoing basis. References in this base prospectus (this “Base Prospectus”) to the “relevant Dealer” will, in the case of a Tranche (as defined below) of Notes being (or intended to be) subscribed by more than one Dealer, be to all Dealers agreeing to subscribe such Notes.

The Notes will be issued in series (each, a “Series”). Each Series may consist of one or more tranches of Notes issued on different issue dates (each a “Tranche”). For the issuance of each Tranche of Notes, final terms specific to such Tranche of Notes (with respect to such Tranche, the “Final Terms”) will be prepared. Potential investors should read this Base Prospectus and the applicable Final Terms carefully before investing in any Notes. The terms and conditions of any particular Tranche of Notes consist of the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes beginning on page 34 of this Base Prospectus (the “General Terms and Conditions”), as completed, supplemented, amended or replaced by Part A of the applicable Final Terms (with respect to such Tranche, the “Conditions”).

Each Holder, by acceptance of any interest in a Note, will acknowledge, agree to be bound by, and consent to the exercise of, any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer that results in the write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of the, principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes, irrespective of whether such amounts have already become due and payable prior to such action. Each Holder, by acceptance of any interest in a Note, will further acknowledge, agree to be bound by, and consent to the ordering of, any Restructuring Protective Measures that result in the deferral of payment of principal and/or interest under the Notes. Each Holder, by acceptance of any interest in a Note, will further acknowledge and agree that its rights are subject to, and, if necessary, will be altered without such Holder’s consent, including by means of an amendment or modification to the Conditions, so as to give effect to any such exercise of Swiss Resolution Power or any such ordering of Restructuring Protective Measures. See the General Terms and Conditions for more information, including the definitions of Holder, Swiss Resolution Power and Restructuring Protective Measures.

An investment in the Notes will involve certain risks, including the risk that the Holders will lose their entire investment in the Notes. For a discussion of certain risks that potential investors should carefully consider before deciding to invest in any Notes, see “Risk Factors” beginning on page 12 of this Base Prospectus.

This Base Prospectus has been approved by SIX Exchange Regulation AG for registration as an “issuance program” for the listing of debt securities on the SIX Swiss Exchange in accordance with the listing rules of the SIX Swiss Exchange (the “SIX Listing Rules”). In respect of any Tranche of Notes to be listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange during the 12 months from the date of this Base Prospectus, this Base Prospectus (as amended or supplemented as of the date of the applicable Final Terms), together with the applicable Final Terms, will constitute the listing prospectus for purposes of the SIX Listing Rules. Each Series of Notes may be admitted to trading and listing on the SIX Swiss Exchange or may be unlisted. A Series of Notes may also be admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any other listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “U.S. Securities Act”). Subject to certain exceptions, Notes may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (see “Subscription and Sale” beginning on page 97 of this Base Prospectus).

Credit Suisse

This Base Prospectus has been prepared by the Issuer solely for use in connection with the offering of the Notes and for the listing of any Series of Notes on the SIX Swiss Exchange. The Issuer has not authorized the use of this Base Prospectus for any other purpose.

The Issuer assumes responsibility pursuant to article 27 of the SIX Listing Rules and section 4 of Scheme E thereunder for the content of this Base Prospectus and declares that the information contained in this Base Prospectus is, to be the best of its knowledge, correct and no material facts or circumstances have been omitted from this Base Prospectus.

This Base Prospectus is to be read in conjunction with all documents that are incorporated by reference herein (see “Documents Incorporated by Reference” beginning on page 6 of this Base Prospectus). This Base Prospectus is to be read and construed on the basis that all documents that are incorporated by reference herein form part of this Base Prospectus.

The Dealers have not independently verified the information contained herein. Accordingly, no representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made and no responsibility or liability is accepted by the Dealers as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Program. No Dealer accepts any liability in relation to the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Program.

No person is or has been authorized by the Issuer to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or not consistent with this Base Prospectus or any other information supplied in connection with the Program or the Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorized by the Issuer or any of the Dealers.

Neither this Base Prospectus nor any other information supplied in connection with the Program or any Notes (a) is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation or (b) should be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer or any of the Dealers that any recipient of this Base Prospectus or any other information supplied in connection with the Program or any Notes should purchase any Notes. Each investor contemplating purchasing any Notes should make its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs, and its own appraisal of the creditworthiness, of the Issuer. Neither this Base Prospectus nor any other information supplied in connection with the Program or the issue of any Notes constitutes an offer or invitation by or on behalf of the Issuers or any of the Dealers to any person to subscribe for or to purchase any Notes.

Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Notes will in any circumstances imply that the information contained herein concerning the Issuer is correct at any time subsequent to the date hereof or that any other information supplied in connection with the Program is correct as of any time subsequent to the date indicated in the document containing the same. The Dealers expressly do not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuer during the life of the Program or to advise any investor in the Notes of any information coming to their attention.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act. Subject to certain exceptions, Notes may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (see “Subscription and Sale” beginning on page 97 of this Base Prospectus).

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors. Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor may wish to consider, either on its own or with the help of its financial and other professional advisers, whether it:

- (i) has sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus;
- (ii) has access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) has sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including Notes denominated in a currency that is different from the currency in which such potential investor’s financial activities are principally denominated;
- (iv) understands thoroughly the Conditions, such as the circumstances under which the Swiss Resolution Authority will have power to write-down and cancel or require the conversion of the Notes into equity of the Issuer and/or defer payments on the Notes, the acknowledgement of such power and consent to its exercise by Holders and the effect of the condition of the Issuer on the Notes;

- (v) understands thoroughly that certain events do not constitute events of default under the Notes; and
- (vi) is able to evaluate possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments. The investment activities of certain investors are subject to investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers (a) to determine whether and to what extent (i) Notes are legal investments for it, (ii) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (iii) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes, and (b) to assess the circumstances under which the Swiss Resolution Authority will have the power to write-down and cancel and/or require the conversion of the Notes into equity of the Issuer and/or defer payments on the Notes, the acknowledgement of such power and consent to its exercise by Holders and the effect of the condition of the issuer on the Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

IMPORTANT – EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – If the applicable Final Terms in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled “Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors”, such Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (the “EEA”). For these purposes, a “retail investor” means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”), (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2002/92/EC, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II, or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive (as defined below). Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (the “PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling such Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA will have been or will be prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation. The expression “Prospectus Directive” means Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended, including by Directive 2010/73/EU), and, in the case of each Member State of the EEA that has implemented such Directive, includes any relevant implementing measure in the such Member State.

MiFID II product governance / target market – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “MiFID II product governance” that will outline the target market assessment in respect of such Notes and which channels for distribution of such Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending such Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of such Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels. A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the “MiFID II Product Governance Rules”), any Dealer subscribing for any such Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID II Product Governance Rules.

In this Base Prospectus, all references to “U.S. dollars”, “USD” and “U.S.$” refer to United States dollars, and all references to “CHF” refer to Swiss francs.

STABILIZATION

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the Stabilization Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilization Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms may over-allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, stabilization may not necessarily occur. Any stabilization action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche of Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche of Notes. Any stabilization action or over-allotment must be conducted by the relevant Stabilization Manager(s) (or person(s) acting on behalf of any Stabilization Manager(s)) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

CREDIT RATINGS

Tranches of Notes will be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche of Notes is rated, such rating will not necessarily be the same as the rating(s) assigned to Notes already issued. Where a Tranche of Notes is rated, the applicable rating(s) will be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Base Prospectus contains or incorporates by reference statements that constitute forward-looking statements. In addition, in the future the Issuer, and others on its behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the Group's plans, objectives, goals, ambitions, targets or goals, the Group's future economic performance or prospects, the potential effect on the Group's future performance of certain contingencies, and assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as "believes", "anticipates", "expects", "intends" and "plans" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. The Issuer does not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. The Issuer cautions Holders that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, ambitions, targets, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include: (i) the ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets; (ii) market volatility and interest rate fluctuations and developments affecting interest rate levels; (iii) the strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which the Group conducts its operations, in particular the risk of continued slow economic recovery or downturn in the U.S. or other developed countries or in emerging markets in 2018 and beyond; (iv) the direct and indirect impacts of deterioration or slow recovery in residential and commercial real estate markets; (v) adverse rating actions by credit rating agencies in respect of the Group, sovereign issuers, structured credit products or other credit-related exposures; (vi) the ability to achieve the Group's strategic goals, including those related to cost efficiency, income/(loss) before taxes, capital ratios and return on regulatory capital, leverage exposure threshold, risk-weighted assets threshold, return on tangible equity and other targets, objectives and ambitions; (vii) the ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to the Group; (viii) the effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, exchange rate, trade and tax policies, as well as currency fluctuations; (ix) political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity; (x) the possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which the Group conducts its operations; (xi) operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly; (xii) the risk of cyber attacks on the Group's business or operations; (xiii) actions taken by regulators with respect to the Group's business and practices and possible resulting changes to its business organization, practices and policies in countries in which it conducts its operations; (xiv) the effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting or tax standards, policies or practices in countries in which the Group conducts its operations; (xv) the potential effects of proposed changes in the Group's legal entity structure; (xvi) competition or changes in the Group's competitive position in geographic and business areas in which it conducts its operations; (xvii) the ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel; (xviii) the ability to maintain the Group's reputation and promote the Group's brand; (xix) the ability to increase market share and control expenses; (xx) technological changes; (xxi) the timely development and acceptance of the Group's new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users; (xxii) acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets; (xxiii) the adverse resolution of litigation, regulatory proceedings and other contingencies; and (xxiv) other unforeseen or unexpected events and the Group's success at managing these and the risks involved in the foregoing.

The foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, investors should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the other risks identified in this Base Prospectus.

SUMMARY

The following description does not purport to be complete and is taken from, and is qualified in its entirety by, the remainder of this Base Prospectus and, in relation to the terms and conditions of any particular Tranche of Notes, the applicable Final Terms. The Issuer and any relevant Dealer may agree that Notes shall be issued in a form other than that contemplated in the General Terms and Conditions.

Capitalized terms used but not defined below have the meanings assigned to them in the General Terms and Conditions.

Issuer:	Credit Suisse Group AG.
Description:	Senior Debt Issuance Program.
Dealers:	Credit Suisse International, Credit Suisse AG and any other Dealers appointed by the Issuer from time to time either generally for the Program or in relation to a particular Series or Tranche of Notes. The Dealer(s) for a particular Series or Tranche of Notes will be specified in the applicable Final Terms.
Principal Paying Agent:	Credit Suisse AG.
Listing Agent:	Credit Suisse AG.
Form of Notes:	The Notes will be issued in uncertificated form as uncertificated securities (Wertrechte) in accordance with 973c of the Swiss Code of Obligations, which will be created by the Issuer by means of a registration in its register of uncertificated securities (Wertrechtbuch). Such uncertificated securities will then be entered into the main register (Hauptregister) of the Intermediary and, upon entry of such uncertificated securities into the accounts of one or more participants in the Intermediary, the Notes will constitute Intermediated Securities. For so long as Notes constitute Intermediated Securities, they may only be transferred by the entry of the transferred Notes in a securities account of the transferee, as set out in the provisions of the Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act (Bucheffektengesetz) regarding the transfer of Intermediated Securities. Neither the Issuer nor any Holder will at any time have the right to effect or demand the conversion of the Notes into, or the delivery of, a permanent global certificate (Globalurkunde) or individually certificated securities (Wertpapiere).
Series and Tranches:	The Notes will be issued in series (each, a “ Series ”). Each Series may consist of one or more tranches of Notes issued on different issue dates (each, a “ Tranche ”). The Notes of each Tranche of the same Series will have identical terms in all respects, except for the issue date, the first date on which interest is paid and/or the first date on which interest begins to accrue. The specific terms and conditions of each Tranche of Notes will consist of the General Terms and Conditions, as completed, supplemented, amended or replaced by the applicable Final Terms.
Issue Price:	Notes may be issued at par or at a discount to par.
Currencies:	Subject to any applicable legal or regulatory restrictions, Notes may be denominated in any currency agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.
Specified Denominations:	Subject to any applicable legal or regulatory restrictions, Notes will be issued in such denominations as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.
Maturity:	Subject to any applicable legal or regulatory restrictions, Notes will be issued with any maturity as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.

Redemption: Notes may be redeemed at their stated maturity at par or at such other redemption amount above par as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.

Early Redemption: The applicable Final Terms will indicate either that the relevant Notes cannot be redeemed prior to their stated maturity (other than for taxation reasons or following an Event of Default) or that such Notes will be redeemable at the option of the Issuer upon the occurrence of an Ineligibility Event and/or on specified dates upon giving notice to the Holders, in each case, on a date or dates specified prior to any such stated maturity and at a price or prices (including, if Make-Whole Redemption is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the specified Make-Whole Redemption Amount) and on such other terms as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.

Events of Default: With respect to any Series of Notes, it will be an Event of Default if:

- (a) the Issuer fails to pay in the Specified Currency any interest on any of the Notes when due and such failure continues for a period of 30 days; or
- (b) the Issuer fails to pay in the Specified Currency the principal of any of the Notes when due and such failure continues for a period of 10 days; or
- (c) the Issuer does not perform or comply with any one or more of its other obligations under the Notes, which default is not remedied within 60 days after notice of such default has been given to the Principal Paying Agent at its Specified Office by any Holder; or
- (d) (i) the Issuer is (or is deemed by a court of competent jurisdiction to be) insolvent or bankrupt or unable to pay its debts as they fall due, makes a general assignment or an arrangement or composition with or for the benefit of its creditors generally or a moratorium is agreed or declared in respect of the debts of the Issuer; or
(ii) the Issuer commences a voluntary case or proceeding under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar law to be adjudicated insolvent or bankrupt, or consents to the entry of a decree or order for relief in any involuntary case or proceeding under any such law; or
- (e) an order is made or an effective resolution passed for the winding-up or dissolution of the Issuer except for the purpose of and followed by a reconstruction, amalgamation, reorganization, merger or consolidation where all of the assets of the Issuer, are transferred to, and all of its debts and liabilities are assumed by, a continuing entity; provided, however, that, none of (i) the opening of CSG Restructuring Proceedings, (ii) the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer that requires or results in any write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of, the principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes, (iii) the ordering of any Restructuring Protective Measures that require or result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest under the Notes and (iv) any consequences resulting from any of the foregoing, will constitute an Event of Default. However, any consequences resulting from any Non-Restructuring Protective Measures that would otherwise constitute an Event of Default will constitute an Event of Default.

If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes may declare all the Notes to be immediately due and payable, as more particularly described in Condition 9.

Fixed Rate Notes:.....

Fixed Rate Notes will bear interest at the fixed rate specified in the applicable Final Terms, which interest will be payable in arrear on such date or dates as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer and on redemption, and will be calculated on the basis of such Day Count Fraction as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.

Floating Rate Notes:

Floating Rate Notes will bear interest at a floating rate determined on the basis of the reference rate, and reset on the date or dates, specified in the applicable Final Terms, as adjusted for any applicable margin. Such interest will be payable in arrear on such date or dates as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer and on redemption, and will be calculated on the basis of such Day Count Fraction as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.

Floating Rate Notes may also have a maximum interest rate, a minimum interest rate or both.

Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes: .

Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes will initially bear interest at the fixed rate specified in the applicable Final Terms, which rate will convert from a fixed rate to a floating rate on the date specified in the applicable Final Terms. The floating rate of interest will be determined on the basis of a reference rate, and reset on the date or dates, specified in the applicable Final Terms, as adjusted for any applicable margin. Such interest will be payable in arrear on such date or dates as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer and on redemption, and will be calculated on the basis of such Day Count Fraction as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.

Fixed Rate Step-Up Notes:

Fixed Rate Step-Up Notes will bear a fixed rate of interest, which rate will reset to a higher fixed rate of interest on such date or dates specified in the applicable Final Terms. Such interest will be payable in arrear on the date or dates as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer and on redemption, and will be calculated on the basis of such Day Count Fraction as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.

Zero Coupon Accreting Notes:

Zero Coupon Accreting Notes will not bear interest, unless the Final Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused when due, in which case, any overdue principal on such Notes will bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the accrual yield specified in the applicable Final Terms until the date of payment.

Status:

The Notes will constitute direct, unconditional, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and will rank pari passu with all other present or future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and without any preference among themselves, except for any preference as is provided by any mandatory applicable provision of law.

Swiss Resolution Power, Restructuring Protective Measures and Suspension Period:

Swiss Resolution Power and Restructuring Protective Measures

By its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder acknowledges, agrees to be bound by and consents to the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer that results in the write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of the, principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes. In addition, by its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder acknowledges, agrees to be bound by and consents to the ordering of any Protective Measures with respect to the Issuer ordered or confirmed upon the opening of or during any CSG Restructuring Proceedings (“Restructuring Protective Measures”), that result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest on the Notes. By its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder further acknowledges, agrees and consents that its rights are subject to, and if necessary, will be altered without such Holder's consent, so as to give effect to any such exercise of Swiss Resolution Power or ordering of Restructuring Protective Measures.

By its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder further automatically and irrevocably waives its right to claim or receive and will not have any rights against the Issuer with respect to repayment of any principal and/or accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes that is written-down and cancelled or converted into equity of the Issuer as a result of the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power.

No payment of principal or interest under the Notes shall become due and payable after the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer unless at the time of such payment it would be permitted to be made under the laws and regulations of Switzerland then applicable.

In addition, by its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder agrees, subject to applicable law, that it shall not be entitled to exercise, claim or plead any right of set-off, compensation or retention or netting arrangement in respect of any amount payable in respect of the Notes and to have waived all such rights.

Suspension Period

If the Swiss Resolution Authority orders any Restructuring Protective Measures requiring the deferment, but not cancellation, of the payment of principal and/or interest on the Notes, such payment will be deferred, but not cancelled, for the duration of the period for which such deferment is required (such period, the "Suspension Period"). Interest payments on the Notes will be cumulative, so that following the termination of a Suspension Period, the Issuer will be required to make any payment of principal that became due and/or accrued and unpaid interest that was deferred during such Suspension Period (but only to the extent such principal and/or accrued and unpaid interest was not subsequently fully or partially written-down and cancelled and/or converted into equity of the Issuer during such Suspension Period).

Listing:.....

Each Series may be admitted to trading and listing on the SIX Swiss Exchange or may be unlisted. Notes may also be admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any other listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system.

Governing Law:

The Notes are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, Swiss law.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Notes involves risk, including the risk of loss of a Holder's entire investment in the Notes. Investors should reach their own investment decision with regard to the Notes only after consultation with their own financial and legal advisers about risks associated with an investment in the Notes, and the suitability of investing in the Notes in light of their particular circumstances.

The Issuer believes that the factors described below represent the principal risks inherent in investing in the Notes, but the inability of the Issuer to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with any Notes or otherwise fulfill its obligations in connection with any Notes may occur for other reasons that may not be considered significant risks by the Issuer based on information currently available to it or which it may not currently anticipate. In addition, certain factors that are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with the Notes are also described below. Prospective investors should give careful consideration to the following risk factors in evaluating the merits and suitability of an investment in the Notes. The information is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all potential risks associated with an investment in the Notes. Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Base Prospectus and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

Capitalized terms used in this section but not defined herein have the meanings assigned to them elsewhere in this Base Prospectus (including the General Terms and Conditions).

Risks relating to the Notes

By purchasing the Notes, you will agree to be bound by the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer that results in the write-down and cancellation of the Notes and/or their conversion into equity of the Issuer and the ordering of any Restructuring Protective Measures that result in the deferral of payments under the Notes, any of which actions may result in the loss of your investment in the Notes.

By its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder will acknowledge, agree to be bound by, and consent to the exercise of, any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer that results in the write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of the, principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes, irrespective of whether such amounts have already become due and payable prior to such action. By its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder will further acknowledge, agree to be bound by, and consent to the ordering of, any Restructuring Protective Measures that result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest under the Notes. As a result, Holders could lose all or substantially all of the amount of their investment in the Notes. If the Swiss Resolution Authority orders the conversion of any Notes into equity of the Issuer, securities received by the Holders may be worth significantly less than the Notes and may have a significantly different risk profile. By its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder will further acknowledge and agree that its rights are subject to, and, if necessary, will be altered without such Holder's consent, including by means of an amendment or modification to the Conditions, so as to give effect to any such exercise of Swiss Resolution Power or any such ordering of Restructuring Protective Measures. See also "—The rights of Holders may be adversely affected by the broad statutory powers of the Swiss Resolution Authority allowing it to order Protective Measures, institute Restructuring Proceedings, exercise any Swiss Resolution Power or institute liquidation proceedings with respect to the Issuer".

The rights of Holders may be adversely affected by the broad statutory powers of the Swiss Resolution Authority allowing it to order Protective Measures, institute Restructuring Proceedings, exercise any Swiss Resolution Power or institute liquidation proceedings with respect to the Issuer.

As a Swiss parent company of a financial group, the resolution regime under Swiss banking laws and regulations applies to the Issuer, as well as to its Swiss bank subsidiaries, such as Credit Suisse AG. In particular, under the Swiss Banking Act, the Swiss Resolution Authority is able to exercise its broad statutory powers thereunder with respect to the Issuer, including the ordering of Protective Measures, the institution of Restructuring Proceedings (and the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power in connection therewith), and the institution of liquidation proceedings. If the Swiss Resolution Authority were to at any time open CSG Restructuring Proceedings, the Swiss Resolution Authority would be able to exercise its Swiss Resolution Powers to, among other things, fully or partially write-down the principal of, and cancel, any Notes and/or convert such Notes into equity of the Issuer. In such a case, Holders of such Notes would lose all or some of their investment in such Notes. If the Swiss Resolution Authority orders the conversion of any Notes into equity of the Issuer, securities received by the Holders of such Notes may be worth significantly less than such Notes and may have a significantly different risk profile. In addition, if the Swiss Resolution Authority were to order any Restructuring Protective Measures that would require or result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest under any Notes, no such payment of principal or interest, as applicable, will be due and payable under such Notes until permitted by the Swiss Resolution Authority (as set forth in the relevant order or as otherwise notified by the Swiss Resolution Authority), and such non-payment will not constitute a default or an Event of Default. As a result, all payments on the Notes may cease after the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer, the ordering of any Restructuring Protective Measures or the institution of liquidation proceedings.

There is no assurance that the taking of any actions by the Swiss Resolution Authority under the Swiss Banking Act with respect to the Issuer would not adversely affect the rights of Holders, the price or value of an investment in the Notes and/or the Issuer's ability to satisfy its obligations under the Notes.

For a description of the regime under Swiss banking laws and regulations as it currently applies to the Issuer, and the various restructuring tools available to the Swiss Resolution Authority, see “—Recent regulatory developments and proposals—Switzerland” and “—Regulatory framework—Switzerland—Resolution regime” under “Information on the company—Regulation and supervision” on pages 29 to 31 and pages 37 to 38, respectively, of the Annual Report 2017.

The Swiss Resolution Authority may fully or partially write-down any Notes and/or convert such Notes into equity of the Issuer.

If the Swiss Resolution Authority were to open CSG Restructuring Proceedings, it would be able to exercise its Swiss Resolution Powers to fully or partially write-down the principal of, and/or accrued interest on, any Notes. In the case of a full write-down of the principal of, and accrued interest on, such Notes, such Notes would be permanently written-down to zero and cancelled, and Holders would lose all of the amount of their investment in such Notes. Upon the occurrence of any such full or partial write-down, Holders would not, at such time or at any time thereafter, (i) receive any shares or other participation rights in the Issuer or be entitled to any other participation in the upside potential of any equity or debt securities issued by the Issuer or (ii) be entitled to any write-up or any other compensation in the event of a potential recovery of the Issuer or any change in the financial condition thereof.

If the Swiss Resolution Authority were to open CSG Restructuring Proceedings and exercise its Swiss Resolution Powers to fully or partially convert any Notes into equity of the Issuer, Holders should also note that the circumstances surrounding such event will likely include a prior deterioration in the market price, if any, of such equity instruments, (e.g., shares of the Issuer), which may be expected to accelerate after the opening of such Restructuring Proceedings. As a result, the value of the equity instruments received could be substantially lower than the price paid for such Notes at the time of their purchase or the principal amount of such Notes, and the equity instruments would have a significantly different risk or liquidity profile from such Notes. Further, there is no assurance that the conversion rate set by the Swiss Resolution Authority will reflect par or other market conditions. As a result, Holders could lose all or substantially all of the amount of their investment in such Notes. Additionally, if such Notes are converted into equity instruments, Holders will be effectively subordinated to all creditors in the event of a winding up, liquidation or dissolution of the Issuer, which would increase the risk that Holders will lose all or some of their investment. Further, it is possible that any equity instrument issued upon conversion of such Notes would not meet the listing requirements of any securities exchange. It is also possible that any equity instruments received by Holders of such Notes upon conversion of such Notes would not be listed for a certain period of time, if at all, or, if initially or previously listed, may be delisted by the relevant exchange, or, even if listed, may be subject to trading moratoriums or other limitations on trading. Unlisted instruments may be less liquid than listed instruments, and therefore may have little or no resale value.

By its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder will acknowledge, agree to be bound by, and consent to the exercise of, any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer that results in a write-down of the principal of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes and/or a conversion of the Notes into equity of the Issuer.

For a description of the regime under Swiss banking laws and regulations as it currently applies to the Issuer, and the various restructuring tools available to the Swiss Resolution Authority, see “—Recent regulatory developments and proposals—Switzerland” and “—Regulatory framework—Switzerland—Resolution regime” under “Information on the company—Regulation and supervision” on pages 29 to 31 and pages 37 to 38, respectively, of the Annual Report 2017.

The Swiss Resolution Authority has substantial discretion as to which Swiss Resolution Powers it can exercise.

The Swiss Banking Insolvency Ordinance governs restructuring or liquidation proceedings with respect to, among others, Swiss banks and securities dealers, and Swiss parent companies of financial groups, such as the Issuer. Instead of prescribing a particular resolution concept, the Swiss Banking Insolvency Ordinance provides the Swiss Resolution Authority with a significant amount of authority and discretion in the case of restructuring or liquidation proceedings, as well as various restructuring tools from which the Swiss Resolution Authority may choose. See also “—The rights of Holders may be adversely affected by the broad statutory powers of the Swiss Resolution Authority allowing it to order Protective Measures, institute Restructuring Proceedings, exercise any Swiss Resolution Power or institute liquidation proceedings with respect to the Issuer”.

If the Swiss Resolution Authority were to open CSG Restructuring Proceedings, the Swiss Resolution Authority would have discretion to exercise Swiss Resolution Powers, including (i) transferring the assets of the Issuer or portions thereof, together with the Issuer’s debt and other liabilities, or portions thereof, and contracts, to another entity, (ii) staying (for a maximum of two business days) the termination of, and the exercise of rights to terminate, netting rights, rights to enforce or dispose of certain types of collateral or rights to transfer claims, liabilities or certain collateral, under contracts to which the Issuer is a party, (iii) converting the Issuer’s debt into equity, and/or (iv) partially or fully writing off the Issuer’s obligations. In particular, the Swiss Resolution Authority would be able to take any of the foregoing actions, as applicable, with respect to the Notes.

Prior to any write-down or conversion into equity with respect to any Notes, outstanding equity capital and debt instruments issued by the Issuer that are part of its regulatory capital (including outstanding high trigger capital instruments and low trigger capital instruments, if any) must be converted or written-down to zero, as applicable, and cancelled. Any conversion into equity (but potentially not any write-down), would have to follow the hierarchy of liquidation claims of the relevant debt to the extent such debt is not excluded from such conversion by the Swiss Banking Insolvency Ordinance. Contingent liabilities of the Issuer, such as guarantees, could also be subjected to a write-down or conversion into equity, to the extent amounts are due and payable thereunder at any time during CSG Restructuring Proceedings.

The Swiss Resolution Authority has discretion as to when and if to open Restructuring Proceedings, and the circumstances under which it would exercise its Swiss Resolution Powers are uncertain.

The Swiss Resolution Authority may open liquidation proceedings with respect to the Issuer or CSG Restructuring Proceedings, if there is justified concern that the entity is over-indebted, has serious liquidity problems or, after the expiry of a deadline, no longer fulfills capital adequacy requirements. Such proceedings may only take the form of Restructuring Proceedings, rather than liquidation proceedings, if (i) the recovery of, or the continued provision of individual banking services by, the Issuer appears likely and (ii) the creditors of the Issuer are likely better off in Restructuring Proceedings than in liquidation proceedings. However, the Swiss Resolution Authority still retains significant discretion and there is therefore significant uncertainty regarding the specific factors that it would consider in deciding whether to open Restructuring Proceedings with respect to any Swiss financial institution.

Once the Swiss Resolution Authority has opened CSG Restructuring Proceedings, it may consider factors such as the results of operations, financial condition (in particular the level of indebtedness), liquidity profile and regulatory capital adequacy of the Issuer, when determining whether to exercise any Swiss Resolution Power, as well as other factors. The criteria that the Swiss Resolution Authority would consider in exercising any Swiss Resolution Power provide it with considerable discretion. Therefore, Holders may not be able to refer to publicly available criteria in order to anticipate a potential exercise of any such Swiss Resolution Power and, consequently, its potential effect on any Notes and/or the Issuer, if applicable.

The rights of Holders to challenge the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power are limited.

Creditors, including Holders, will have no right to reject any restructuring plan approved by the Swiss Resolution Authority pursuant to which it exercises its Swiss Resolution Powers in connection with CSG Restructuring Proceedings. Furthermore, creditors, including Holders, will have no right to seek the suspension of any such restructuring plan. In particular, in the case of CSG Restructuring Proceedings, Holders would have no right to reject or seek the suspension of any exercise of Swiss Resolution Powers that result in the write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of the, principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes, irrespective of whether such claims have already become due and payable prior to the opening of such CSG Restructuring Proceedings. In addition, Holders will have only limited rights to challenge any decision of the Swiss Resolution Authority to exercise its Swiss Resolution Powers with respect to the Issuer or to have that decision reviewed by a judicial or administrative process or otherwise.

The Swiss Resolution Authority may order Protective Measures with respect to the Issuer, including the deferral of payment of interest or principal, and the rights of Holders to challenge any such Protective Measures are limited.

The Swiss Resolution Authority may order Protective Measures with respect to the Issuer if there is justified concern that the Issuer is over-indebted, has serious liquidity problems or, after the expiration of any relevant deadline, no longer fulfills capital adequacy requirements. Such Protective Measures may be ordered (i) outside of and independently of any CSG Restructuring Proceedings, or (ii) upon the opening of or during any CSG Restructuring Proceedings. Protective Measures may include, but are not limited to, certain measures that could require or result in a moratorium or the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest due under any Notes.

The Issuer will have limited ability to challenge any such Protective Measures. Additionally, Holders would have no right under Swiss law and in Swiss courts to reject, seek the suspension of, or to challenge the imposition of any such Protective Measures, including any Protective Measures that require or result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest under such Notes.

Any non-payment of principal and/or interest when due on any Notes that arises as a result of any Non-Restructuring Protective Measures ordered with respect to the Issuer could constitute a default or Event of Default. The Issuer will have limited ability to prevent any such default or an Event of Default.

Any non-payment of principal and/or interest when otherwise due on any Notes that arises as a result of any Restructuring Protective Measures will not constitute a default or an Event of Default.

In the case that the Swiss Resolution Authority orders a moratorium as a Protective Measure with respect to the Issuer, for so long as such Protective Measure is in effect, amongst others, the possibility to initiate or continue debt collection proceedings or court proceedings in Switzerland against the Issuer with respect to claims under any Notes would be suspended.

Certain events do not constitute defaults or Events of Default under the Notes.

Under the General Terms and Conditions, neither (i) the opening of CSG Restructuring Proceedings, nor (ii) the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer that requires or results in any write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of, the principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, any Notes, nor (iii) the ordering of any Restructuring Protective Measures that require or result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest under any Notes, nor (iv) any consequences resulting from any of the foregoing, will be a default or an Event of Default.

In certain instances, Holders may be bound by certain amendments to the Notes to which they did not consent.

The Notes are subject to statutory provisions of Swiss law allowing for the calling of meetings of Holders to consider matters affecting their interests. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Holders of the relevant Series of Notes, including Holders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Holders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority. Pursuant to the relevant statutory provisions of Swiss law as in effect as at the date of this Base Prospectus, (i) the Issuer will be required to provide Holders with at least ten days' notice of any meeting of Holders, (ii) the Issuer will be required to call a meeting of Holders within 20 days if it is requested to do so by Holders holding an aggregate principal amount of Notes that represents at least one-twentieth of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Notes of the relevant Series, and (iii) only Holders or their proxies will be entitled to attend or vote at a meeting of Holders.

In addition, the Holder approval requirements under the relevant statutory provisions of Swiss law as in effect as at the date of this Base Prospectus for amendments to the Conditions will depend on the type of amendment. Pursuant to article 1170 of the Swiss Code of Obligations, the consent of Holders holding at least two-thirds of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Notes of the relevant Series is required for any resolution limiting Holders' rights under such Notes (such as a moratorium on interest or capital and certain amendments to the interest provisions). In addition, in order to become effective and binding on the non-consenting Holders, any such resolution must be approved by the competent superior cantonal composition court. In the case of resolutions that do not limit Holders' rights under the Notes, pursuant to article 1181 of the Swiss Code of Obligations, an absolute majority of the votes represented at a meeting of Holders of the relevant Series is sufficient to approve any such resolution, unless article 1170 of the Swiss Code of Obligations or the Conditions provide for more stringent requirements.

Changes in law may adversely affect the rights of the Holders.

Changes in law after the date hereof may adversely affect the rights and effective remedies of Holders as well as the market value of any Notes. Such changes in law may include changes in statutory, tax and regulatory regimes during the life of any Notes, which may have an adverse effect on investment in such Notes. For example, an amendment to the Swiss Banking Act was proposed on November 4, 2015, pursuant to which claims with respect to bail-in bonds (Forderungen, die zur Verlusttragung im Falle von Insolvenzmassnahmen ausgegeben wurden) such as the Notes would be subject to a write-down and/or conversion into equity of the issuer after equity capital, claims with respect to regulatory capital instruments, and other subordinated debt instruments issued by the issuer, but before any of the issuer's other senior liabilities that do not constitute bail-in bonds. It is, however, not possible to predict whether or when such amendment would be enacted or what final form it would take.

There is no restriction on the amount or type of further securities or indebtedness that the Issuer may issue.

There is no restriction on the amount or type of further securities or indebtedness that the Issuer may issue, incur or guarantee, as the case may be, that rank senior to, or pari passu with, the Notes. The issue or guaranteeing of any such further securities or indebtedness may limit the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations under the Notes.

The Notes will not be covered by any government compensation or insurance scheme and will not have the benefit of any government guarantee.

An investment in the Notes will not be covered by any compensation or insurance scheme of any government agency of Switzerland or any other jurisdiction and the Notes will not have the benefit of any government guarantee. The Notes will be the obligations of the Issuer only and Holders must look solely to the Issuer for the performance of the Issuer's obligations under the Notes. In the event of the insolvency of the Issuer, a Holder may lose all or some of its investment in the Notes.

Following an Event of Default, the Notes will only become due and payable in certain circumstances.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Notes will only become immediately due and payable upon Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes giving notice in writing to the Principal Paying Agent at its Specified Office declaring all the Notes to be immediately due and payable, unless such Event of Default has been remedied prior to the receipt of such notice by the Principal Paying Agent. If Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes do not provide such notice to the Principal Paying Agent, then, notwithstanding the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Notes will not become due and payable.

Risks related to the terms of a particular issue of Notes

A range of Notes may be issued under the issuance program contemplated in this Base Prospectus. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of the most common such features:

The Notes may be subject to redemption at the option of the Issuer.

An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of any Series of Notes. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

In the case of a Series of Notes that bears interest, the Issuer may be expected to redeem such Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on such Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Furthermore, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer will have the option to partially exercise its optional redemption right with respect to a Series of Notes. Depending on the number of Notes of the same Series in respect of which any such option is not exercised, any trading market in respect of such Notes may become illiquid.

Interest rate risks in relation to Fixed Rate Notes and Fixed Rate Step-Up Notes.

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that if market interest rates subsequently increase above the rate at which such Notes bear interest, this will adversely affect the real return on (and the value of) such Notes.

In the case of Fixed Rate Step-Up Notes, even though the Conditions provide that the fixed rate of interest periodically increases, a Holder is subject to the risk that such increases in the rate of interest do not keep pace with any increases in market interest rates, with the consequence that the real return on (and the value of) such Notes will fall.

Floating Rate Notes and, commencing on the Floating Rate Commencement Date, Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes may have a Floating Rate of Interest determined by reference to a Reference Rate based on a “benchmark”, including LIBOR, and any discontinuation or reform of such benchmark may adversely affect the value of and return on such Notes, including (if so specified in the applicable Final Terms) by providing the Calculation Agent, which is an affiliate of the Issuer, with the authority to replace the Reference Rate.

Certain Reference Rates, including LIBOR, are deemed to be “benchmarks” and are the subject of ongoing national and international regulatory scrutiny and reform. Some of these reforms are already effective, while others are still to be implemented or formulated. For example, on July 27, 2017, the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority (the “FCA”), which regulates LIBOR, announced that it intends to stop persuading or compelling banks to submit rates for the calculation of LIBOR to the administrator of LIBOR after 2021. The announcement indicates that the continuation of LIBOR on the current basis cannot and will not be guaranteed after 2021. These reforms may cause such “benchmarks” to perform differently than they performed in the past or to be discontinued entirely and may have other consequences that cannot be predicted. Any such consequences could adversely affect the value of and return on any Note that has a Floating Rate of Interest determined by reference to a Reference Rate based on a “benchmark”, particularly if such Note is a Floating Rate Note.

Any of the proposals for reform or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of “benchmarks” could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a “benchmark” and complying with any such regulations or requirements. Such factors may have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to certain “benchmarks”, trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in certain “benchmarks” or lead to the discontinuation or unavailability of quotes of certain “benchmarks”.

To the extent the Floating Rate of Interest on a Note is determined by reference to a specific “benchmark” that is discontinued or is no longer quoted, the Reference Rate will be determined using the alternative methods described in the Conditions, such as those described in Condition 4(b)(iii). Any of these alternative methods may result in interest payments that are lower than or that do not otherwise correlate over time with the payments that would have been made on those Notes if the relevant “benchmark” was available in its current form. Further, the same costs and risks that may lead to the discontinuation or unavailability of a “benchmark” may make one or more of the alternative methods impossible or impracticable to determine. The final alternative method set forth in the General Terms and Conditions (which will apply to any Reference Rate unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms for the applicable Series of Notes) sets the Reference Rate for a Floating Rate Interest Period at the same rate as the immediately preceding Floating Rate Interest Period (or, in the case of the first Floating Rate Interest Period for Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes, sets the Reference Rate at the same rate as the Fixed Rate of Interest). In the case of a Floating Rate Note or, commencing on the Floating Rate Commencement Date, a Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Note, this alternative method would effectively convert such Note into a fixed rate instrument. Any of the foregoing may have an adverse effect on the value of such Notes.

Notwithstanding the alternative methods for determining the applicable Reference Rate described in the immediately preceding paragraph, if the applicable Final Terms specify that Replacement Rate Determination is applicable, then, pursuant to Condition 4(b)(iv), the Calculation Agent will have the discretion to determine at any time (i) that the Reference Rate (the “Existing Rate”) has been discontinued, and (ii) if so, whether to use a substitute or successor rate that it has determined in its sole discretion is most comparable to the Existing Rate (such substitute or successor rate, the “Replacement Rate”) for purposes of calculating the Reference Rate on each subsequent Interest Determination Date. If the Calculation Agent determines to use a substitute or successor rate pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, it shall select such rate in its sole discretion, provided that, if it determines that there is an appropriate industry-accepted successor rate to the Existing Rate, it shall select such industry-accepted successor rate. Furthermore, if the Calculation Agent has determined to use such a Replacement Rate, (A) it will in its sole discretion determine (x) the method for obtaining such Replacement Rate (including any alternative method for determining the Replacement Rate if such substitute or successor rate is unavailable on the relevant Interest Determination Date), which method must be consistent with industry-accepted practices for the Replacement Rate), and (y) any adjustment factor as may be necessary to make the Replacement Rate comparable to the Existing Rate had it not been discontinued, consistent with industry-accepted practices for the Replacement Rate, and (B) if it in its sole discretion determines that changes to the definitions of Business Day, Day Count Fraction, Interest Determination Date, Reference Banks, Relevant Screen Page or Specified Time are necessary in order to implement such Replacement Rate as the Reference Rate and/or changes to Condition 4(b)(iii) are necessary to implement any alternative method for determining the Replacement Rate or adjustment factor as described in sub-clause (A) above, such definitions and/or Condition will be amended accordingly. The use of a Replacement Rate, including the determination to use (or not use) an adjustment factor, may result in interest payments that are lower than or that do not otherwise correlate over time with the payments that could have been made on the applicable Series of Notes if the Existing Rate was available in the form it was available as of the relevant Issue Date. Furthermore, with respect to any such Series of Notes, any exercise by the Calculation Agent of the discretion described herein could adversely affect the market price for such Notes. In addition, as each of Credit Suisse International and Credit Suisse AG is an affiliate of the Issuer, any exercise by it of the above-described discretion in its capacity as Calculation Agent may present the Issuer or such affiliate with a conflict of interest. If the Existing Rate has been discontinued and the Calculation Agent does not determine a Replacement Rate, then the Reference Rate will be determined using the alternative methods described in the immediately preceding paragraph, which are applicable to all cases in which the Existing Rate does not appear on the Relevant Screen at the Specified Time. In such case, such alternative methods may not only have the effects described in such paragraph, but may also result in interest payments that are lower than those that would have been made on the applicable Series of Notes if a Replacement Rate had been determined.

The specified use of proceeds of Notes issued as “green” bonds may not meet investor expectations or be suitable for an investor’s investment criteria.

The Final Terms relating to any specific Tranche of Notes may provide that it will be the Issuer’s intention to allocate (or cause one or more of its affiliates to allocate) the proceeds from such Notes to the financing and/or refinancing of certain businesses and projects in accordance with the Issuer’s green bond framework (as may be amended from time to time). The Issuer will exercise its judgment and sole discretion in determining the businesses and projects that will be financed by the proceeds of any such Notes. If the use of the proceeds of the Notes is a factor in an investor’s decision to invest in the Notes, such investor should consider the discussion in “Use of Proceeds” in the relevant Final Terms and consult with legal or other advisors before making an investment in the Notes. There can be no assurance that any of the businesses and projects funded with the proceeds from the Notes will meet the Issuer’s sustainable development goals or green bond framework, as the case may be, or any investor’s expectations. Furthermore, the Issuer has no contractual obligation to allocate the proceeds of any such Notes to finance particular businesses and projects or to provide annual reports as may be described in “Use of Proceeds” in the relevant Final Terms. Failure by the Issuer to so allocate or report, or the failure of the external assurance provider named in the relevant Final Terms (if any) or any other external assurance provider to opine on the report’s conformity with the Issuer’s sustainable development goals or green bond framework, as the case may be, will not constitute a default or an Event of Default with respect to the Notes.

No assurance or representation is given as to the suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion of any external party that may be made available in connection with the issue of any such Notes or the extent to which any businesses and projects that will be financed by the proceeds of any such Notes may fulfil any environmental, sustainability, social and/or other criteria. Any such opinion is not incorporated in and does not form part of this Base Prospectus and is not a recommendation by the Issuer or any other person to buy, sell or hold the Notes. Any such opinion is only current as of the date that opinion was issued and the criteria and considerations that underlie such opinion may change at any time.

There is currently no clear definition (legal, regulatory or otherwise) of, or market consensus as to what constitutes, a “green” or an equivalently-labelled project or asset or as to what precise attributes are required for a particular project or asset to be defined as “green” or such other equivalent label, and no assurance can be given that such a clear definition or consensus will develop over time or that any prevailing market consensus will not significantly change.

In the event that any such Notes are listed or admitted to trading on, or included in, any dedicated “green”, “environmental”, “sustainable” or other equivalently-labelled segment of any stock exchange, securities market, index or list (whether or not regulated), no representation or assurance is given by the Issuer or any other person that such listing, admission or inclusion satisfies, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply. Furthermore, the criteria for any such listing, admission or inclusion may vary from one stock exchange, securities market, index or list to another. No representation or assurance is given by the Issuer or any other person that any such listing, admission or inclusion will be obtained in respect of any such Notes or, if obtained, that any such listing, admission or inclusion will be maintained during the life of such Notes. Loss of listing, admission or inclusion on any such stock exchange, securities market, index or list may affect the value of such Notes.

Any of the above factors (and any events that negatively affect the value of any other securities of the Issuer that are intended to finance “green” or equivalently-labelled projects or assets) could have a material adverse effect on the value of such Notes, and/or have adverse consequences for certain investors in such Notes with portfolio mandates to make investments that meet particular “green”, “environmental”, “sustainable” and/or any other similar standards.

Capped Floating Rate Notes are subject to a maximum rate of interest.

Capped Floating Rate Notes usually bear interest at a rate equal to the sum of a reference rate and the specified margin (if any), subject to a maximum specified rate of interest. The maximum amount of interest payable in respect of such Notes will occur when the sum of the reference and the specified margin (if any) equals the maximum specified rate of interest.

Holders of such Notes will therefore not benefit from any increase in the reference rate that, when the specified margin (if any) is added to such reference rate, would otherwise cause the interest rate on such Notes to exceed the maximum specified rate of interest. As a result, the market value of such Notes will typically fall the closer the sum of the reference rate and the specified margin (if any) is to the maximum specified rate of interest.

The rate of interest on Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes will convert from a fixed rate to a floating rate, and this may affect the secondary market in, and the market value of, such Notes.

Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes will bear interest at a rate that converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate on the date specified in the applicable Final Terms. Upon such conversion from a fixed rate to a floating rate, the spread on the Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes may be less favorable than then prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes.

Zero Coupon Accreting Notes are subject to higher price fluctuations than conventional interest-bearing Notes.

Changes in market interest rates have a stronger impact on the prices of Zero Coupon Accreting Notes than on the prices of conventional interest-bearing Notes. Holders of Zero Coupon Accreting Notes will receive no periodic interest payment and, instead, will only receive a fixed lump-sum payment at stated maturity. If market interest rates increase, Zero Coupon Accreting Notes can suffer higher price losses than other types of Notes having the same maturity and, in the case of Zero Coupon Accreting Notes that are rated, the same rating. Generally, the longer the remaining term of a Zero Coupon Accreting Note, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing Notes with comparable maturities.

Risks related to the market generally

Set out below is a brief description of the principal market risks, including liquidity risk, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk and credit risk:

No public market exists for any Notes, and there are uncertainties regarding the existence of any trading market for any Notes.

Each Series of Notes will be new securities, which may not be widely distributed and for which there is currently no active trading market. If any Notes were to be traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount to their issue price, depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions, or the Issuer's results of operations, financial condition, liquidity profile and regulatory capital adequacy. Therefore, Holders may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that would provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. The Notes generally would have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional notes.

Although application may be made for the admission to trading and listing of the Notes of a particular Series on the SIX Swiss Exchange, there can be no assurance that such application would be accepted or that an active trading market in such Notes would develop. Accordingly, there can be no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any trading market for such Notes. Illiquidity may have a severely adverse effect on the market value of such Notes.

The market value of any Notes may be influenced by unpredictable factors.

Many factors, most of which will be beyond the Issuer's control, will influence the value of any Series of Notes and the price, if any, at which securities dealers may be willing to purchase or sell such Notes in the secondary market, including:

- (i) the creditworthiness of the Issuer and, in particular its results of operations, financial condition, liquidity profile and regulatory capital adequacy;
- (ii) supply and demand for such Notes, including inventory with any securities dealer; and
- (iii) economic, financial, political or regulatory events or judicial decisions that affect the Issuer or the financial markets generally.

Accordingly, if a Holder sells its Notes in the secondary market, it may not be able to obtain a price equal to the principal amount of such Notes or a price equal to the price that it paid for such Notes.

Exchange rate risks and exchange controls.

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (i) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (ii) the Investor's Currency-equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes, and (iii) the Investor's Currency-equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

Security ratings may not reflect all risks. Changes to the ratings of any Notes could affect the value of such Notes.

Upon issuance, one or more independent credit rating agencies may assign ratings to each Tranche of Notes. However, the Issuer is under no obligation to ensure that any Notes are rated by any rating agency. If a particular Tranche of Notes is rated, the ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of such Notes. There can be no assurance that the methodology of these rating agencies will not evolve or that such ratings will not be suspended, reduced or withdrawn at any time. Further, such ratings may be revised downwards in the event of a deterioration in the capital position or viability of the Issuer. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, hold or sell securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

The Issuer's credit rating may not reflect all risks of an investment in the Notes.

The Issuer's credit rating may not reflect the potential impact of all risks relating to the market values of any Notes. However, real or anticipated changes in the Issuer's credit rating will generally affect the market values of the Notes or may result in a downgrade in the ratings, if any, for the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments.

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to assess the Conditions of any Notes (including as to the circumstances under which the Swiss Resolution Authority will have power to write-down and/or convert the Notes into equity of the Issuer, the acknowledgement thereof and consent thereto and the effect of the condition of the Issuer on the Notes) and to determine whether and to what extent (i) such Notes are legal investments for it, (ii) such Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing, and (iii) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of any Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

Risks relating to the Issuer

The Issuer is a holding company and relies on its subsidiaries for all funds necessary to meet its financial obligations.

The Issuer is a holding company and its direct or indirect subsidiaries conduct all of its operations and own all of its assets. The Issuer has no significant assets other than the partnership interests, stock and other equity interests in its subsidiaries and any claims under any loans to or other investments it makes in members of the Group from time to time, including those that it may make with the net proceeds it receives from the issuance of any Tranche of Notes. The Issuer's direct or indirect subsidiaries are separate and distinct legal entities and, under certain circumstances, legal and contractual restrictions may limit the ability of these subsidiaries to provide the Issuer with funds for the Issuer's payment of its securities, whether by dividends, distributions, loans or other payments. For example, there are various regulatory requirements applicable to some of the Issuer's direct or indirect subsidiaries that limit their ability to pay dividends and make loans and advances to the Issuer. Any distribution of earnings to the Issuer from its subsidiaries, or advances or other distributions of funds by these subsidiaries to the Issuer, all of which are subject to statutory or contractual restrictions, are contingent upon the subsidiaries' earnings and are subject to various business considerations. Moreover, certain of the Issuer's direct and indirect subsidiaries may be subject to (or may be subject to the exercise of statutory powers of a regulator that are similar to) the Swiss Resolution Powers and Protective Measures that may be exercised or ordered, respectively, by the Swiss Resolution Authority and/or requirements with respect to loss-absorbing capacity that could impact their ability to repay any loans the Issuer has made to, or other investments the Issuer has made in, such subsidiary, including those that it may make with the net proceeds it receives from the issuance of any Tranche of Notes. These requirements and/or limitations could impact the Issuer's ability to pay amounts due under the Notes. Additionally, since the creditors of any of the Issuer's subsidiaries would generally have a right to receive payment that is superior to the Issuer's right to receive payment from the assets of that subsidiary, Holders will be effectively subordinated to creditors of the Issuer's subsidiaries.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity, or ready access to funds, is essential to the Group's business, particularly the Group's investment banking businesses. The Group seeks to maintain available liquidity to meet its obligations in a stressed liquidity environment. For information on the Group's liquidity management, refer to "III—Treasury, Risk, Balance sheet and Off-balance sheet—Liquidity and funding management" in the Annual Report 2017 and "II—Treasury, risk, balance sheet and off-balance sheet" in the Financial Report 1Q18.

The Group's liquidity could be impaired if it were unable to access the capital markets, sell its assets or its liquidity costs increase.

The Group's ability to borrow on a secured or unsecured basis and the cost of doing so can be affected by increases in interest rates or credit spreads, the availability of credit, regulatory requirements relating to liquidity or the market perceptions of risk relating to the Group, certain of its counterparties or the banking sector as a whole, including the Group's perceived or actual creditworthiness. An inability to obtain financing in the unsecured long-term or short-term debt capital markets, or to access the secured lending markets, could have a substantial adverse effect on the Group's liquidity. In challenging credit markets, the Group's funding costs may increase or it may be unable to raise funds to support or expand its businesses, adversely affecting its results of operations. Following the financial crisis in 2008 and 2009, the Group's costs of liquidity have been significant and it expects to incur ongoing costs as a result of regulatory requirements for increased liquidity. In addition, on July 27, 2017, the FCA, which regulates LIBOR, announced that the FCA will no longer persuade or compel banks to submit rates for the calculation of the LIBOR benchmark after 2021. As such, LIBOR may be modified and could potentially be discontinued after 2021. Any such developments or future changes in the administration of benchmarks could result in adverse consequences to the return on, value of and market for securities and other instruments whose returns are linked to any such benchmark, including those issued by the Group.

If the Group is unable to raise needed funds in the capital markets (including through offerings of equity, debt and regulatory capital securities), it may need to liquidate unencumbered assets to meet its liabilities. In a time of reduced liquidity, the Group may be unable to sell some of its assets, or it may need to sell assets at depressed prices, which in either case could adversely affect its results of operations and financial condition.

The Group's businesses rely significantly on its deposit base for funding.

The Group's businesses benefit from short-term funding sources, including primarily demand deposits, inter-bank loans, time deposits and cash bonds. Although deposits have been, over time, a stable source of funding, this may not continue. In that case, the Group's liquidity position could be adversely affected and it might be unable to meet deposit withdrawals on demand, or at their contractual maturity, to repay borrowings as they mature or to fund new loans, investments and businesses.

Changes in the Group's ratings may adversely affect its business.

Ratings are assigned by rating agencies. They may lower, indicate their intention to lower or withdraw their ratings at any time. The major rating agencies remain focused on the financial services industry, particularly on uncertainties as to whether firms pose systemic risk in a financial or credit crisis, and on such firms' potential vulnerability to market sentiment and confidence, particularly during periods of severe economic stress. In January 2016, Moody's Investors Service lowered its senior long-term debt ratings of Credit Suisse AG and Credit Suisse Group AG by one notch. Any downgrades in the Group's ratings, could increase its borrowing costs, limit its access to capital markets, increase its cost of capital and adversely affect the ability of its businesses to sell or market their products, engage in business transactions—particularly financing and derivatives transactions—and retain its clients.

Market risk

The Group may incur significant losses on its trading and investment activities due to market fluctuations and volatility.

Although the Group continued to strive to reduce its balance sheet and made significant progress in implementing its strategy in 2017, it continues to maintain large trading and investment positions and hedges in the debt, currency and equity markets, and in private equity, hedge funds, real estate and other assets. These positions could be adversely affected by volatility in financial and other markets, that is, the degree to which prices fluctuate over a particular period in a particular market, regardless of market levels. To the extent that the Group owns assets, or has net long positions, in any of those markets, a downturn in those markets could result in losses from a decline in the value of its net long positions. Conversely, to the extent that the Group has sold assets that it does not own or has net short positions, in any of those markets, an upturn in those markets could expose it to potentially significant losses as it attempts to cover its net short positions by acquiring assets in a rising market. Market fluctuations, downturns and volatility can adversely affect the fair value of the Group's positions and its results of operations. Adverse market or economic conditions or trends have caused, and in the future may cause, a significant decline in the Group's net revenues and profitability.

The Group's businesses and organization are subject to the risk of loss from adverse market conditions and unfavorable economic, monetary, political, legal, regulatory and other developments in the countries it operates in.

As a global financial services company, the Group's businesses are materially affected by conditions in the financial markets, economic conditions generally and other developments in Europe, the U.S., Asia and elsewhere around the world. The recovery from the economic crisis of 2008 and 2009 continues to be sluggish in several key developed markets. The European sovereign debt crisis as well as U.S. debt levels and the federal budget process have not been permanently resolved. In addition, commodity price volatility and concerns about emerging markets have affected financial markets. The Group's financial condition and results of operations could be materially adversely affected if these conditions do not improve, or if they stagnate or worsen. Further, various countries in which the Group operates or invests have experienced severe economic disruptions particular to that country or region, including extreme currency fluctuations, high inflation, or low or negative growth, among other negative conditions. Concerns about weaknesses in the economic and fiscal condition of certain European countries have continued, especially with regard to how such weaknesses might affect other economies as well as financial institutions (including the Group) which lent funds to or did business with or in those countries.

Continued concern about European economies, including the refugee crisis and political uncertainty, as well as in relation to the UK's withdrawal from the EU, could cause disruptions in market conditions in Europe and around the world. UK Prime Minister Theresa May initiated the two-year process of negotiations for withdrawal from the EU in March 2017, with an expected date of withdrawal in early 2019 (subject to any transitional arrangements that may be agreed between the EU and the UK). The results of this negotiation and the macroeconomic impact of this decision are difficult to predict and are expected to remain uncertain for a prolonged period. Among the significant global implications of the referendum was the increased uncertainty concerning a potentially more persistent and widespread imposition by central banks of negative interest rate policies. The Group cannot accurately predict the impact of the UK leaving the EU on the Group and such impact may negatively affect its future results of operations and financial condition. The Group's legal entities that are organized or operate in the UK could face limitations on providing services or otherwise conducting business in the EU following the UK's withdrawal, which may require the Group to implement potentially significant changes to its legal entity structure and locations in which it conducts certain operations. While the execution of the program evolving the Group's legal entity structure to meet developing and future regulatory requirements has continued to progress and the Group has reached a number of significant milestones, this program remains subject to a number of uncertainties that may affect its feasibility, scope and timing. Significant legal and regulatory changes affecting the Group and its operations may require it to make further changes in its legal structure. The implementation of these changes may require significant time and resources and may potentially increase operational, capital, funding and tax costs as well as its counterparties' credit risk. The environment of political uncertainty in continental Europe may also affect the Group's business. The popularity of nationalistic sentiments may result in significant shifts in national policy and a move away from European integration and the eurozone. Similar uncertainties exist regarding the impact of proposed changes in U.S. policies on trade, immigration, climate change and foreign relations. For information on the Group's legal entity structure, refer to "I—Information on the company—Strategy—Evolution of legal entity structure" in the Annual Report 2017.

Economic disruption in other countries, even in countries in which the Group does not currently conduct business or have operations, could adversely affect its businesses and results. Adverse market and economic conditions continue to create a challenging operating environment for financial services companies. In particular, the impact of interest and currency exchange rates, the risk of geopolitical events, fluctuations in commodity prices and concerns about European stagnation have affected financial markets and the economy. In recent years, the low interest rate environment has adversely affected the Group's net interest income and the value of its trading and non-trading fixed income portfolios. Future changes in interest rates, including increasing interest rates or changes in the current negative short-term interest rates in the Group's home market, could adversely affect its businesses and results. In addition, movements in equity markets have affected the value of the Group's trading and non-trading equity portfolios, while the historical strength of the Swiss franc has adversely affected the Group's revenues and net income. Further, diverging monetary policies among the major economies in which the Group operates, in particular among the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the "Fed"), the European Central Bank and the Swiss National Bank (the "SNB"), may adversely affect its results.

Such adverse market or economic conditions may reduce the number and size of investment banking transactions in which the Group provides underwriting, mergers and acquisitions advice or other services and, therefore, may adversely affect its financial advisory and underwriting fees. Such conditions may adversely affect the types and volumes of securities trades that the Group executes for customers and may adversely affect the net revenues it receives from commissions and spreads. In addition, several of the Group's businesses engage in transactions with, or trade in obligations of, governmental entities, including supranational, national, state, provincial, municipal and local authorities. These activities can expose the Group to enhanced sovereign, credit-related, operational and reputational risks, including the risks that a governmental entity may default on or restructure its obligations or may claim that actions taken by government officials were beyond the legal authority of those officials, which could adversely affect the Group's financial condition and results of operations.

Unfavorable market or economic conditions have affected the Group's businesses over the last years, including the low interest rate environment, continued cautious investor behavior and changes in market structure, particularly in the Group's macro businesses. These negative factors have been reflected in lower commissions and fees from the Group's client-flow sales and trading and asset management activities, including commissions and fees that are based on the value of the Group's clients' portfolios. Investment performance that is below that of competitors or asset management benchmarks could result in a decline in assets under management and related fees and make it harder to attract new clients. There has been a fundamental shift in client demand away from more complex products and significant client deleveraging, and the Group's results of operations related to private banking and asset management activities have been and could continue to be adversely affected as long as this continues.

Adverse market or economic conditions have also negatively affected the Group's private equity investments since, if a private equity investment substantially declines in value, the Group may not receive any increased share of the income and gains from such investment (to which the Group is entitled in certain cases when the return on such investment exceeds certain threshold returns), may be obligated to return to investors previously received excess carried interest payments and may lose its pro rata share of the capital invested. In addition, it could become more difficult to dispose of the investment, as even investments that are performing well may prove difficult to exit.

In addition to the macroeconomic factors discussed above, other events beyond the Group's control, including terrorist attacks, cyber attacks, military conflicts, economic or political sanctions, disease pandemics, political unrest or natural disasters could have a material adverse effect on economic and market conditions, market volatility and financial activity, with a potential related effect on the Group's businesses and results.

The Group may incur significant losses in the real estate sector.

The Group finances and acquires principal positions in a number of real estate and real estate-related products, primarily for clients, and originates loans secured by commercial and residential properties. As of December 31, 2017, the Group's real estate loans as reported to the SNB totaled approximately CHF 144 billion. The Group also securitizes and trades in commercial and residential real estate and real estate-related whole loans, mortgages, and other real estate and commercial assets and products, including commercial mortgage-backed securities and residential mortgage-backed securities. The Group's real estate-related businesses and risk exposures could be adversely affected by any downturn in real estate markets, other sectors and the economy as a whole. In particular, the risk of potential price corrections in the real estate market in certain areas of Switzerland could have a material adverse effect on the Group's real estate-related businesses.

Holding large and concentrated positions may expose the Group to large losses.

Concentrations of risk could increase losses, given that the Group has sizeable loans to, and securities holdings in, certain customers, industries or countries. Decreasing economic growth in any sector in which the Group makes significant commitments, for example, through underwriting, lending or advisory services, could also negatively affect the Group's net revenues.

The Group has significant risk concentration in the financial services industry as a result of the large volume of transactions it routinely conducts with broker-dealers, banks, funds and other financial institutions, and in the ordinary conduct of its business it may be subject to risk concentration with a particular counterparty. The Group, like other financial institutions, continues to adapt its practices and operations in consultation with its regulators to better address an evolving understanding of its exposure to, and management of, systemic risk and risk concentration to financial institutions. Regulators continue to focus on these risks, and there are numerous new regulations and government proposals, and significant ongoing regulatory uncertainty, about how best to address them. There can be no assurance that the changes in the Group's industry, operations, practices and regulation will be effective in managing this risk. For further information, refer to "I—Information on the company—Regulation and supervision" in the Annual Report 2017 and "II—Treasury, risk, balance sheet and off-balance sheet—Capital management—Regulatory Capital Framework" in the Financial Report 1Q18.

Risk concentration may cause the Group to suffer losses even when economic and market conditions are generally favorable for others in its industry.

The Group's hedging strategies may not prevent losses.

If any of the variety of instruments and strategies the Group uses to hedge its exposure to various types of risk in its businesses is not effective, it may incur losses. The Group may be unable to purchase hedges or be only partially hedged, or its hedging strategies may not be fully effective in mitigating its risk exposure in all market environments or against all types of risk.

Market risk may increase the other risks that the Group faces.

In addition to the potentially adverse effects on the Group's businesses described above, market risk could exacerbate the other risks that the Group faces. For example, if the Group were to incur substantial trading losses, its need for liquidity could rise sharply while its access to liquidity could be impaired. In conjunction with another market downturn, the Group's customers and counterparties could also incur substantial losses of their own, thereby weakening their financial condition and increasing the Group's credit and counterparty risk exposure to them.

Credit risk

The Group may suffer significant losses from its credit exposures.

The Group's businesses are subject to the fundamental risk that borrowers and other counterparties will be unable to perform their obligations. The Group's credit exposures exist across a wide range of transactions that it engages in with a large number of clients and counterparties, including lending relationships, commitments and letters of credit, as well as derivative, currency exchange and other transactions. The Group's exposure to credit risk can be exacerbated by adverse economic or market trends, as well as increased volatility in relevant markets or instruments. In addition, disruptions in the liquidity or transparency of the financial markets may result in its inability to sell, syndicate or realize the value of its positions, thereby leading to increased concentrations. Any inability to reduce these positions may not only increase the market and credit risks associated with such positions, but also increase the level of risk-weighted assets ("RWA") on the Group's balance sheet, thereby increasing its capital requirements, all of which could adversely affect its businesses. For information on management of credit risk, refer to "III—Treasury, Risk, Balance sheet and Off-balance sheet—Risk management—Risk coverage and management—Credit risk" in the Annual Report 2017 and "II—Treasury, risk, balance sheet and off-balance sheet—Risk management" in the Financial Report 1Q18.

The Group's regular review of the creditworthiness of clients and counterparties for credit losses does not depend on the accounting treatment of the asset or commitment. Changes in creditworthiness of loans and loan commitments that are fair valued are reflected in trading revenues.

Management's determination of the provision for loan losses is subject to significant judgment. The Group's banking businesses may need to increase their provisions for loan losses or may record losses in excess of the previously determined provisions if its original estimates of loss prove inadequate, which could have a material adverse effect on its results of operations. For information on provisions for loan losses and related risk mitigation refer to "III—Treasury, Risk, Balance sheet and Off-balance sheet—Risk management—Risk coverage and management" and "Note 1—Summary of significant accounting policies", "Note 9—Provision for credit losses" and "Note 18—Loans, allowance for loan losses and credit quality", each in "VI—Consolidated financial statements—Credit Suisse Group" in the Annual Report 2017 and "II—Treasury, risk, balance sheet and off-balance sheet—Risk management" and "Note 9—Provision for credit losses" and "Note 18—Loans, allowance for loan losses and credit quality”, each in “III—Condensed consolidated financial statements-unaudited” in the Financial Report 1Q18.

Under certain circumstances, the Group may assume long-term credit risk, extend credit against illiquid collateral and price derivative instruments aggressively based on the credit risks that it takes. As a result of these risks, its capital and liquidity requirements may continue to increase.

Defaults by one or more large financial institutions could adversely affect financial markets generally and the Group specifically.

Concerns or even rumors about or a default by one institution could lead to significant liquidity problems, losses or defaults by other institutions because the commercial soundness of many financial institutions may be closely related as a result of credit, trading, clearing or other relationships between institutions. This risk is sometimes referred to as systemic risk. Concerns about defaults by and failures of many financial institutions, particularly those in or with significant exposure to the eurozone, continued in 2017 and could continue to lead to losses or defaults by financial institutions and financial intermediaries with which the Group interacts on a daily basis, such as clearing agencies, clearing houses, banks, securities firms and exchanges. The Group’s credit risk exposure will also increase if the collateral it holds cannot be realized or can only be liquidated at prices insufficient to cover the full amount of exposure.

The information that the Group uses to manage its credit risk may be inaccurate or incomplete.

Although the Group regularly reviews its credit exposure to specific clients and counterparties and to specific industries, countries and regions that it believes may present credit concerns, default risk may arise from events or circumstances that are difficult to foresee or detect, such as fraud. The Group may also lack correct and complete information with respect to the credit or trading risks of a counterparty or risk associated with specific industries, countries and regions or misinterpret such information that is received or otherwise incorrectly assess a given risk situation. Additionally, there can be no assurance that measures instituted to manage such risk will be effective in all instances.

Risks relating to the Group’s strategy

The Group may not achieve all of the expected benefits of its strategic initiatives.

In October 2015, the Group announced a comprehensive new strategic direction, structure and organization of the Group, which the Group updated in 2016 and 2017. The Group’s ability to implement its strategic direction, structure and organization is based on a number of key assumptions regarding the future economic environment, the economic growth of certain geographic regions, the regulatory landscape, the Group’s ability to meet certain ambitions, objectives and targets, anticipated interest rates and central bank action, among other things. If any of these assumptions (including but not limited to its ability to meet certain ambitions, objectives and targets) prove inaccurate in whole or in part, the Group’s ability to achieve some or all of the expected benefits of this strategy could be limited, including its ability to meet its stated financial goals, keep related restructuring charges within the limits currently expected and retain key employees. Factors beyond the Group’s control, including but not limited to the market and economic conditions, changes in laws, rules or regulations, execution risk related to the implementation of its strategy and other challenges and risk factors discussed in this Base Prospectus, could limit its ability to achieve some or all of the expected benefits of this strategy. The breadth of the changes that the Group announced increases the execution risk of its strategy as the Group continues to work to change the strategic direction of the Group. If the Group is unable to implement this strategy successfully in whole or in part or should the components of the strategy that are implemented fail to produce the expected benefits, its financial results and Credit Suisse Group AG’s share price may be materially and adversely affected. For further information on the Group’s strategic direction, refer to “I—Information on the company—Strategy” in the Annual Report 2017.

Additionally, part of the Group’s strategy involves a change in focus within certain areas of its business, which may have unanticipated negative effects in other areas of the business and may result in an adverse effect on its business as a whole.

The implementation of the Group’s strategy may increase its exposure to certain risks, including but not limited to, credit risks, market risks, operational risks and regulatory risks. The Group also seeks to achieve certain ambitions, objectives and targets, for example in relation to cost savings, which may or may not be successful. There is no guarantee the Group will be able to achieve these goals in the form described or at all. Finally, changes to the organizational structure of the Group’s business, as well as changes in personnel and management, may lead to temporary instability of its operations.

In addition, acquisitions and other similar transactions the Group undertakes as part of its strategy subject it to certain risks. Even though the Group reviews the records of companies it plans to acquire, it is generally not feasible for the Group to review all such records in detail. Even an in-depth review of records may not reveal existing or potential problems or permit the Group to become familiar enough with a business to assess fully its capabilities and deficiencies. As a result, the Group may assume unanticipated liabilities (including legal and compliance issues), or an acquired business may not perform as well as expected. The Group also faces the risk that it will not be able to integrate acquisitions into its existing operations effectively as a result of, among other things, differing procedures, business practices and technology systems, as well as difficulties in adapting an acquired company into its organizational structure. The Group faces the risk that the returns on acquisitions will not support the expenditures or indebtedness incurred to acquire such businesses or the capital expenditures needed to develop such businesses. The Group also faces the risk that unsuccessful acquisitions will ultimately result in its having to write down or write off any goodwill associated with such transactions. For example, the Group's results for the fourth quarter of 2015 included a goodwill impairment charge of CHF 3,797 million, the most significant component of which arose from the acquisition of Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette Inc. in 2000. The Group continues to have a significant amount of goodwill relating to this and other transactions recorded on its balance sheet that could result in additional goodwill impairment charges.

The Group may also seek to engage in new joint ventures (within the Group and with external parties) and strategic alliances. Although the Group endeavors to identify appropriate partners, its joint venture efforts may prove unsuccessful or may not justify its investment and other commitments.

Risks from estimates and valuations

The Group makes estimates and valuations that affect its reported results, including measuring the fair value of certain assets and liabilities, establishing provisions for contingencies and losses for loans, litigation and regulatory proceedings, accounting for goodwill and intangible asset impairments, evaluating its ability to realize deferred tax assets, valuing equity-based compensation awards, modeling its risk exposure and calculating expenses and liabilities associated with its pension plans. These estimates are based upon judgment and available information, and the Group's actual results may differ materially from these estimates. For information on these estimates and valuations, refer to "II—Operating and financial review—Critical accounting estimates" and "Note 1—Summary of significant accounting policies" in "VI—Consolidated financial statements—Credit Suisse Group" in the Annual Report 2017.

The Group's estimates and valuations rely on models and processes to predict economic conditions and market or other events that might affect the ability of counterparties to perform their obligations to the Group or impact the value of assets. To the extent the Group's models and processes become less predictive due to unforeseen market conditions, illiquidity or volatility, its ability to make accurate estimates and valuations could be adversely affected.

Risks relating to off-balance sheet entities

The Group enters into transactions with special purpose entities ("SPEs") in its normal course of business, and certain SPEs with which the Group transacts business are not consolidated and their assets and liabilities are off-balance sheet. The Group may have to exercise significant management judgment in applying relevant accounting consolidation standards, either initially or after the occurrence of certain events that may require the Group to reassess whether consolidation is required. Accounting standards relating to consolidation, and their interpretation, have changed and may continue to change. If the Group is required to consolidate an SPE, its assets and liabilities would be recorded on its consolidated balance sheets and the Group would recognize related gains and losses in its consolidated statements of operations, and this could have an adverse impact on its results of operations and capital and leverage ratios. For information on the Group's transactions with and commitments to SPEs, refer to "III—Treasury, Risk, Balance sheet and Off-balance sheet—Balance sheet, off-balance sheet and other contractual obligations—Off-balance sheet" in the Annual Report 2017 and "II—Treasury, risk, balance sheet and off-balance sheet—Balance sheet and off-balance sheet—Off-balance sheet" in the Financial Report 1Q18.

Country and currency exchange risk

Country risks may increase market and credit risks the Group faces.

Country, regional and political risks are components of market and credit risk. Financial markets and economic conditions generally have been and may in the future be materially affected by such risks. Economic or political pressures in a country or region, including those arising from local market disruptions, currency crises, monetary controls or other factors, may adversely affect the ability of clients or counterparties located in that country or region to obtain foreign currency or credit and, therefore, to perform their obligations to the Group, which in turn may have an adverse impact on its results of operations.

The Group may face significant losses in emerging markets.

A key element of the Group's strategy is to scale up its private banking businesses in emerging market countries. The Group's implementation of that strategy will necessarily increase its existing exposure to economic instability in those countries. The Group monitors these risks, seek diversity in the sectors in which the Group invests and emphasize client-driven business. The Group's efforts at limiting emerging market risk, however, may not always succeed. In addition, various emerging market countries, in particular Brazil during 2017, have experienced and may continue to experience severe economic, financial and political disruptions or slower economic growth than in prior years. In addition, sanctions have been imposed on certain individuals and companies in Russia and further sanctions are possible. The possible effects of any such disruptions may include an adverse impact on the Group's businesses and increased volatility in financial markets generally.

Currency fluctuations may adversely affect the Group's results of operations.

The Group is exposed to risk from fluctuations in exchange rates for currencies, particularly the U.S. dollar. In particular, a substantial portion of the Group's assets and liabilities are denominated in currencies other than the Swiss franc, which is the primary currency of its financial reporting. The Group's capital is also stated in Swiss francs, and the Group does not fully hedge its capital position against changes in currency exchange rates. The Swiss franc remained strong against the U.S. dollar and weakened against the euro in 2017.

As the Group incurs a significant part of its expenses in Swiss francs while it generates a large proportion of its revenues in other currencies, its earnings are sensitive to changes in the exchange rates between the Swiss franc and other major currencies. Although the Group has implemented a number of measures designed to offset the impact of exchange rate fluctuations on its results of operations, the appreciation of the Swiss franc in particular and exchange rate volatility in general have had an adverse impact on its results of operations and capital position in recent years and may have such an effect in the future.

Operational risk

The Group is exposed to a wide variety of operational risks, including cybersecurity and other information technology risks.

Operational risk is the risk of financial loss arising from inadequate or failed internal processes, people or systems or from external events. In general, although the Group has business continuity plans, its businesses face a wide variety of operational risks, including technology risk that stems from dependencies on information technology, third-party suppliers and the telecommunications infrastructure as well as from the interconnectivity of multiple financial institutions with central agents, exchanges and clearing houses. As a global financial services company, the Group relies heavily on its financial, accounting and other data processing systems, which are varied and complex. The Group's business depends on its ability to process a large volume of diverse and complex transactions, including derivatives transactions, which have increased in volume and complexity. The Group is exposed to operational risk arising from errors made in the execution, confirmation or settlement of transactions or from transactions not being properly recorded or accounted for. Cybersecurity and other information technology risks for financial institutions have significantly increased in recent years. Regulatory requirements in these areas have increased and are expected to increase further.

Information security, data confidentiality and integrity are of critical importance to the Group's businesses. Despite the Group's wide array of security measures to protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of its systems and information, it is not always possible to anticipate the evolving threat landscape and mitigate all risks to its systems and information. The Group could also be affected by risks to the systems and information of clients, vendors, service providers, counterparties and other third parties. In addition, the Group may introduce new products or services or change processes, resulting in new operational risk that it may not fully appreciate or identify.

These threats may derive from human error, fraud or malice, or may result from accidental technological failure. There may also be attempts to fraudulently induce employees, clients, third parties or other users of the Group's systems to disclose sensitive information in order to gain access to its data or that of its clients.

A cyber attack, information or security breach or technology failure could cause the unauthorized release, gathering, monitoring, misuse, loss or destruction of confidential, proprietary and other information relating to the Group, its clients, vendors, service providers, counterparties or other third parties. Given the Group's global footprint and the high volume of transactions the Group processes, the large number of clients, partners and counterparties with which the Group does business, its growing use of digital, mobile and internet-based services, and the increasing sophistication of cyber attacks, a cyber attack, information or security breach or technology failure could occur without detection for an extended period of time. In addition, the Group expects that any investigation of a cyber attack, information or security breach or technology failure will be inherently unpredictable and it may take time before any investigation is complete. During such time, the Group may not know the extent of the harm or how best to remediate it and certain errors or actions may be repeated or compounded before they are discovered and rectified, all or any of which would further increase the costs and consequences of a cyber attack, information or security breach or technology failure.

If any of the Group's systems do not operate properly or are compromised as a result of cyber attacks, information or security breaches, technology failures, unauthorized access, loss or destruction of data, unavailability of service, computer viruses or other events that could have an adverse security impact, the Group could be subject to litigation or suffer financial loss not covered by insurance, a disruption of its businesses, liability to its clients, damage to relationships with its vendors, regulatory intervention or reputational damage. Any such event could also require the Group to expend significant additional resources to modify its protective measures or to investigate and remediate vulnerabilities or other exposures. The Group may also be required to expend resources to comply with new and increasingly expansive regulatory requirements related to cybersecurity.

The Group may suffer losses due to employee misconduct.

The Group's businesses are exposed to risk from potential non-compliance with policies or regulations, employee misconduct or negligence and fraud, which could result in civil or criminal investigations and charges, regulatory sanctions and serious reputational or financial harm. In recent years, a number of multinational financial institutions have suffered material losses due to, for example, the actions of traders performing unauthorized trades or other employee misconduct. It is not always possible to deter employee misconduct and the precautions the Group takes to prevent and detect this activity may not always be effective.

Risk management

The Group has risk management procedures and policies designed to manage its risk. These techniques and policies, however, may not always be effective, particularly in highly volatile markets. The Group continues to adapt its risk management techniques, in particular value-at-risk and economic capital, which rely on historical data, to reflect changes in the financial and credit markets. No risk management procedures can anticipate every market development or event, and its risk management procedures and hedging strategies, and the judgments behind them, may not fully mitigate its risk exposure in all markets or against all types of risk. For information on its risk management, refer to "III—Treasury, Risk, Balance sheet and Off-balance sheet—Risk management" in the Annual Report 2017 and "II—Treasury, risk, balance sheet and off-balance sheet—Risk management" in the Financial Report 1Q18.

Legal and regulatory risks

The Group's exposure to legal liability is significant.

The Group faces significant legal risks in its businesses, and the volume and amount of damages claimed in litigation, regulatory proceedings and other adversarial proceedings against financial services firms continue to increase in many of the principal markets in which the Group operates.

Credit Suisse Group AG and its subsidiaries are subject to a number of material legal proceedings, regulatory actions and investigations, and an adverse result in one or more of these proceedings could have a material adverse effect on the Group's operating results for any particular period, depending, in part, upon its results for such period. For information relating to these and other legal and regulatory proceedings involving the Group's investment banking and other businesses, refer to "Note 38—Litigation" in "VI—Consolidated financial statements—Credit Suisse Group" in the Annual Report 2017 and "Note 32—Litigation" in "III—Condensed consolidated financial statements—unaudited" in the Financial Report 1Q18.

It is inherently difficult to predict the outcome of many of the legal, regulatory and other adversarial proceedings involving the Group's businesses, particularly those cases in which the matters are brought on behalf of various classes of claimants, seek damages of unspecified or indeterminate amounts or involve novel legal claims. Management is required to establish, increase or release reserves for losses that are probable and reasonably estimable in connection with these matters, all of which requires significant judgment. For more information, refer to "II—Operating and financial review—Critical accounting estimates" and "Note 1—Summary of significant accounting policies" in "VI—Consolidated financial statements—Credit Suisse Group" in the Annual Report 2017.

Regulatory changes may adversely affect the Group's business and ability to execute its strategic plans.

As a participant in the financial services industry, the Group is subject to extensive regulation by governmental agencies, supervisory authorities and self-regulatory organizations in Switzerland, the EU, the UK, the U.S. and other jurisdictions in which the Group operates around the world. Such regulation is increasingly more extensive and complex and, in recent years, costs related to the Group's compliance with these requirements and the penalties and fines sought and imposed on the financial services industry by regulatory authorities have all increased significantly and may increase further. These regulations often serve to limit its activities, including through the application of increased or enhanced capital, leverage and liquidity requirements, the addition of capital surcharges for risks related to operational, litigation, regulatory and similar matters, customer protection and market conduct regulations and direct or indirect restrictions on the businesses in which the Group may operate or invest. Such limitations can have a negative effect on its business and its ability to implement strategic initiatives. To the extent the Group is required to divest certain businesses, it could incur losses, as it may be forced to sell such businesses at a discount, which in certain instances could be substantial, as a result of both the constrained timing of such sales and the possibility that other financial institutions are liquidating similar investments at the same time.

Since 2008, regulators and governments have focused on the reform of the financial services industry, including enhanced capital, leverage and liquidity requirements, changes in compensation practices (including tax levies) and measures to address systemic risk, including ring-fencing certain activities and operations within specific legal entities. The Group is already subject to extensive regulation in many areas of its business and expects to face increased regulation and regulatory scrutiny and enforcement. These various regulations and requirements could require the Group to reduce assets held in certain subsidiaries, inject capital or other funds into or otherwise change its operations or the structure of its subsidiaries and Group. The Group expects such increased regulation to continue to increase its costs, including, but not limited to, costs related to compliance, systems and operations, as well as affect its ability to conduct certain types of business, which could adversely affect its profitability and competitive position. Variations in the details and implementation of such regulations may further negatively affect the Group, as certain requirements currently are not expected to apply equally to all of its competitors or to be implemented uniformly across jurisdictions.

For example, the additional requirements related to minimum regulatory capital, leverage ratios and liquidity measures imposed by Basel III, together with more stringent requirements imposed by the Swiss "Too Big To Fail" legislation and its implementing ordinances and related actions by the Group's regulators, have contributed to its decision to reduce RWA and the size of its balance sheet, and could potentially impact its access to capital markets and increase its funding costs. In addition, the ongoing implementation in the U.S. of the provisions of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (the "Dodd-Frank Act"), including the "Volcker Rule", derivatives regulation, and other regulatory developments described in "I—Information on the company—Regulation and supervision" in the Annual Report 2017 and in "I—Credit Suisse results—Credit Suisse—Regulatory Developments and Proposals" and "II—Treasury, risk, balance sheet and off-balance sheet—Capital management—Regulatory Capital Framework" in the Financial Report 1Q18, have imposed, and will continue to impose, new regulatory burdens on certain of the Group's operations. These requirements have contributed to the Group's decision to exit certain businesses (including a number of its private equity businesses) and may lead the Group to exit other businesses. Recent Commodity Futures Trading Commission and SEC rules and proposals could materially increase the operating costs, including margin requirements, compliance, information technology and related costs, associated with the Group's derivatives businesses with U.S. persons, while at the same time making it more difficult for the Group to transact derivatives business outside the U.S. Further, in 2014, the Fed adopted a final rule under the Dodd-Frank Act that created a new framework for regulation of the U.S. operations of foreign banking organizations such as the Group's. Although the final impact of the rule cannot be fully predicted at this time, it is expected to result in the Group incurring additional costs and to affect the way it conducts its business in the U.S., including through its U.S. intermediate holding company.

Certain of these proposals are not final, and the ultimate impact of any final requirements cannot be predicted at this time. Further, already enacted and possible future cross-border tax regulation with extraterritorial effect, such as the U.S. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, and other bilateral or multilateral tax treaties and agreements on the automatic exchange of information in tax matters, impose detailed reporting obligations and increased compliance and systems-related costs on its businesses. In addition, the U.S. tax reform enacted on December 22, 2017 introduced substantial changes to the U.S. tax system, including the lowering of the corporate tax rate and the introduction of the base erosion and anti-abuse tax. Additionally, implementation of the European Market Infrastructure Regulation ("EMIR") and its Swiss counterpart, the Federal Act on Financial Market Infrastructure and Market Conduct in Securities and Derivatives Trading, the Capital Requirements Directive IV and Capital Requirements Regulation ("CRD IV"), MiFID II and the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulation reforms may negatively affect the Group's business activities. If Switzerland does not pass legislation that is deemed equivalent to MiFID II in a timely manner or if Swiss regulation already passed is not deemed equivalent to EMIR, Swiss banks, including the Group, may be limited from participating in businesses regulated by such laws. Finally, the Group expects that total loss-absorbing capacity ("TLAC") requirements, which were finalized in Switzerland and the U.S. in 2016 and are being finalized in many other jurisdictions, including the EU, as well as new requirements and rules with respect to the internal TLAC of global systemically important banks (“G-SIBs”), may increase its cost of funding and restrict its ability to deploy capital and liquidity on a global basis as needed when they are implemented. Further, following the formal notification by the UK of its decision to leave the EU, negotiations have commenced on the withdrawal agreement. This includes the renegotiation, either during a transitional period or more permanently, of a number of regulatory and other arrangements between the EU and the UK that could directly impact the Group’s business. Adverse changes to any of these arrangements, and even uncertainty over potential changes during the period of negotiation, could potentially impact the Group’s results.

The Group expects the financial services industry and its members, including the Group, to continue to be affected by the significant uncertainty over the scope and content of regulatory reform in 2018 and beyond. The uncertainty about the future U.S. regulatory agenda, which includes a variety of proposals to change existing regulations or the approach to regulation of the financial industry, potential changes in regulation following a UK withdrawal from the EU and the results of national elections in Europe may result in significant changes in the regulatory direction and policies applicable to the Group. Changes in laws, rules or regulations, or in their interpretation or enforcement, or the implementation of new laws, rules or regulations, may adversely affect the Group’s results of operations.

Despite the Group’s best efforts to comply with applicable regulations, a number of risks remain, particularly in areas where applicable regulations may be unclear or inconsistent among jurisdictions or where regulators revise their previous guidance or courts overturn previous rulings. Authorities in many jurisdictions have the power to bring administrative or judicial proceedings against the Group, which could result in, among other things, suspension or revocation of its licenses, cease and desist orders, fines, civil penalties, criminal penalties or other disciplinary action which could materially adversely affect its results of operations and seriously harm its reputation. For a description of the Group’s regulatory regime and a summary of some of the significant regulatory and government reform proposals affecting the financial services industry, refer to “I—Information on the company—Regulation and supervision” in the Annual Report 2017. For information regarding the Group’s current regulatory framework and expected changes to this framework affecting capital and liquidity standards, refer to “Liquidity and funding management” and “Capital management”, each in “III—Treasury, Risk, Balance sheet and Off-balance sheet” in the Annual Report 2017 and “II—Treasury, risk, balance sheet and off-balance sheet” in the Financial Report 1Q18.

Swiss resolution proceedings and resolution planning requirements may affect the Group’s shareholders and creditors.

Pursuant to Swiss banking laws, FINMA has broad powers and discretion in the case of resolution proceedings with respect to a Swiss bank, such as Credit Suisse AG or Credit Suisse (Schweiz) AG, and to a Swiss parent company of a financial group, such as Credit Suisse Group AG. These broad powers include the power to open restructuring proceedings with respect to Credit Suisse AG, Credit Suisse (Schweiz) AG or Credit Suisse Group AG and, in connection therewith, cancel the outstanding equity of the entity subject to such proceedings, convert such entity’s debt instruments and other liabilities into equity and/or cancel such debt instruments and other liabilities, in each case, in whole or in part, and stay (for a maximum of two business days) certain rights under contracts to which such entity is a party, as well as the power to order protective measures, including the deferment of payments, and institute liquidation proceedings with respect to Credit Suisse AG, Credit Suisse (Schweiz) AG or Credit Suisse Group AG. The scope of such powers and discretion and the legal mechanisms that would be utilized are subject to development and interpretation.

The Group is currently subject to resolution planning requirements in Switzerland, the U.S. and the UK and may face similar requirements in other jurisdictions. If a resolution plan is determined by the relevant authority to be inadequate, relevant regulations may allow the authority to place limitations on the scope or size of the Group’s business in that jurisdiction, require the Group to hold higher amounts of capital or liquidity, require the Group to divest assets or subsidiaries or to change its legal structure or business to remove the relevant impediments to resolution.

For a description of the current resolution regime under Swiss banking laws as it applies to Credit Suisse AG, Credit Suisse (Schweiz) AG and Credit Suisse Group AG, see “Recent regulatory developments and proposals—Switzerland” and “—Regulatory framework—Switzerland—Resolution regime”, each in “I—Information on the company—Regulation and supervision” in the Annual Report 2017. See also “The rights of Holders may be adversely affected by the broad statutory powers of the Swiss Resolution Authority allowing it to order Protective Measures, institute Restructuring Proceedings, exercise any Swiss Resolution Power or institute liquidation proceedings with respect to the Issuer” in this Base Prospectus.

Changes in monetary policy are beyond the Group’s control and difficult to predict.

The Group is affected by the monetary policies adopted by the central banks and regulatory authorities of Switzerland, the U.S. and other countries. The actions of the SNB and other central banking authorities directly impact the Group’s cost of funds for lending, capital raising and investment activities and may impact the value of financial instruments the Group holds and the competitive and operating environment for the financial services industry. Many central banks, including the Fed, have implemented significant changes to their monetary policy or have experienced significant changes in their management and may implement or experience further changes. The Group cannot predict whether these changes will have a material adverse effect on the Group or its operations. In addition, changes in monetary policy may affect the credit quality of the Group's customers. Any changes in monetary policy are beyond the Group's control and difficult to predict.

Legal restrictions on the Group's clients may reduce the demand for the Group's services.

The Group may be materially affected not only by regulations applicable to it as a financial services company, but also by regulations and changes in enforcement practices applicable to its clients. The Group's business could be affected by, among other things, existing and proposed tax legislation, antitrust and competition policies, corporate governance initiatives and other governmental regulations and policies, and changes in the interpretation or enforcement of existing laws and rules that affect business and the financial markets. For example, focus on tax compliance and changes in enforcement practices could lead to further asset outflows from the Group's private banking businesses.

Competition

The Group faces intense competition.

The Group faces intense competition in all financial services markets and for the products and services it offers. Consolidation through mergers, acquisitions, alliances and cooperation, including as a result of financial distress, has increased competitive pressures. Competition is based on many factors, including the products and services offered, pricing, distribution systems, customer service, brand recognition, perceived financial strength and the willingness to use capital to serve client needs. Consolidation has created a number of firms that, like the Group, have the ability to offer a wide range of products, from loans and deposit-taking to brokerage, investment banking and asset management services. Some of these firms may be able to offer a broader range of products than the Group does, or offer such products at more competitive prices. Current market conditions have resulted in significant changes in the competitive landscape in the Group's industry as many institutions have merged, altered the scope of their business, declared bankruptcy, received government assistance or changed their regulatory status, which will affect how they conduct their business. In addition, current market conditions have had a fundamental impact on client demand for products and services. Some new competitors in the financial technology sector have sought to target existing segments of the Group's businesses that could be susceptible to disruption by innovative or less regulated business models. The Group can give no assurance that its results of operations will not be adversely affected.

The Group's competitive position could be harmed if its reputation is damaged.

In the highly competitive environment arising from globalization and convergence in the financial services industry, a reputation for financial strength and integrity is critical to the Group's performance, including its ability to attract and retain clients and employees. The Group's reputation could be harmed if its comprehensive procedures and controls fail, or appear to fail, to address conflicts of interest, prevent employee misconduct, produce materially accurate and complete financial and other information or prevent adverse legal or regulatory actions. For more information, refer to "III—Treasury, Risk, Balance sheet and Off-balance sheet—Risk management—Risk coverage and management—Reputational risk" in the Annual Report 2017.

The Group must recruit and retain highly skilled employees.

The Group's performance is largely dependent on the talents and efforts of highly skilled individuals. Competition for qualified employees is intense. The Group has devoted considerable resources to recruiting, training and compensating employees. The Group's continued ability to compete effectively in its businesses depends on its ability to attract new employees and to retain and motivate its existing employees. The continued public focus on compensation practices in the financial services industry, and related regulatory changes, may have an adverse impact on the Group's ability to attract and retain highly skilled employees. In particular, limits on the amount and form of executive compensation imposed by regulatory initiatives, including the Swiss Ordinance Against Excessive Compensation with respect to Listed Stock Corporations in Switzerland and the implementation of CRD IV in the UK, could potentially have an adverse impact on its ability to retain certain of its most highly skilled employees and hire new qualified employees in certain businesses.

The Group face competition from new trading technologies.

The Group's businesses face competitive challenges from new trading technologies, including trends towards direct access to automated and electronic markets, and the move to more automated trading platforms. Such technologies and trends may adversely affect the Group's commission and trading revenues, exclude its businesses from certain transaction flows, reduce its participation in the trading markets and the associated access to market information and lead to the creation of new and stronger competitors. The Group has made, and may continue to be required to make, significant additional expenditures to develop and support new trading systems or otherwise invest in technology to maintain its competitive position.

2. AMOUNT, DENOMINATION AND FORM

(a) Amount and Denomination

The initial aggregate principal amount of the Notes is specified in the applicable Final Terms. All payments in relation to the Notes will be made in the same currency as the aggregate principal amount (i.e., the Specified Currency). The Notes are issued to Holders in the Specified Denomination(s) specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(b) Form

The Notes will be issued in uncertificated form as uncertificated securities (Wertrechte) in accordance with article 973c of the Swiss Code of Obligations, which will be created by the Issuer by means of a registration in its register of uncertificated securities (Wertrechtbuch). Such uncertificated securities will then be entered into the main register (Hauptregister) of SIS or any other intermediary in Switzerland recognized for such purposes by the SIX Swiss Exchange (SIS or any such other intermediary, the “Intermediary”). Once the uncertificated securities are registered in the main register (Hauptregister) of the Intermediary and entered into the accounts of one or more participants of the Intermediary, the Notes will constitute intermediated securities (Bucheffekten) (“Intermediated Securities”) within the meaning of the Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act (Bucheffektengesetz).

For so long as the Notes are Intermediated Securities, the Notes may only be transferred by the entry of the transferred Notes in a securities account of the transferee, as set out in the provisions of the Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act (Bucheffektengesetz) regarding the transfer of Intermediated Securities. The records of the Intermediary will determine the number of Notes held through each participant in that Intermediary.

3. STATUS OF THE NOTES

The Notes constitute direct, unconditional, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu with all other present or future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and without any preference among themselves, except for such preference as is provided by any mandatory applicable provision of law.

4. INTEREST

The applicable Final Terms will indicate whether the Notes are Fixed Rate Notes, Floating Rate Notes, Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes, Fixed Rate Step-Up Notes or Zero Coupon Accreting Notes.

(a) Fixed Rate Notes

This clause (a) applies to (x) Fixed Rate Notes, (y) to (but excluding) the Floating Rate Commencement Date, Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes, and (z) Fixed Rate Step-Up Notes only.

- (i) The Notes will bear interest on their principal amount at the applicable Fixed Rate of Interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date to (but excluding) (A) in the case of a Note redeemed early pursuant to Condition 5(b), Condition 5(c), Condition 5(d) or Condition 5(e), the applicable Optional Redemption Date, or (B) otherwise, (x) in the case of Notes that are Fixed Rate Notes or Fixed Rate Step-Up Notes, the Maturity Date, and (y) in the case of Notes that are Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes, the Interest Payment Date falling on the Floating Rate Commencement Date; provided, however, that if payment with respect to any Note is improperly withheld or refused on such Optional Redemption Date or the Maturity Date, as the case may be, interest will continue to accrue on the principal amount of such Note (both before and after judgment) at the applicable Fixed Rate of Interest to (but excluding) the Relevant Date. Subject to Condition 4(e), interest on the Notes will be payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date.
- (ii) The amount of interest payable in respect of any Note on any Interest Payment Date or any other date will be calculated by:
 - (A) multiplying the applicable Fixed Rate of Interest by the principal amount of such Note;
 - (B) multiplying the product thereof by the Day Count Fraction; and
 - (C) rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit (with one-half sub-unit being rounded upwards).

(b) Floating Rate Notes

This clause (b) applies to (x) Floating Rate Notes and (y) from (and including) the Floating Rate Commencement Date, Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes only.

- (i) The Notes will bear interest on their principal amount at the applicable Floating Rate of Interest from (and including) (x) in the case of Notes that are Floating Rate Notes, the Interest Commencement Date, and (y) in the case of Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes, the Interest Payment Date falling on the Floating Rate Commencement Date, to (but excluding) (A) in the case of a Note redeemed early pursuant to Condition 5(b), Condition 5(c), Condition 5(d) or Condition 5(e), the applicable Optional Redemption Date, or (B) otherwise, the Maturity Date; provided, however, that if payment with respect to any Note is improperly withheld or refused on such Optional Redemption Date or the Maturity Date, as the case may be, interest will continue to accrue on the principal amount of such Note (both before and after judgment) at the applicable Floating Rate of Interest to (but excluding) the Relevant Date. Subject to Condition 4(e), interest on the Notes will be payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date.
- (ii) The amount of interest payable in respect of any Note on any Interest Payment Date or any other date will be calculated by:
 - (A) multiplying the applicable Floating Rate of Interest by the principal amount of such Note;
 - (B) multiplying the product thereof by the Day Count Fraction; and
 - (C) rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit (with one-half sub-unit being rounded upwards).

- (iii) The applicable rate of interest for each Floating Rate Interest Period (the “Floating Rate of Interest”) will, subject as provided below and, if applicable, to Condition 4(b)(iv) and Condition 4(b)(v), be either:
- (A) if the Reference Rate is a composite quotation or customarily supplied by one entity, the bid rate or offered quotation; or
 - (B) otherwise, the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the bid rates or offered quotations, (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate that appears on the Relevant Screen Page (or such replacement page on that service which displays the information) as of the Specified Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date in relation to the relevant Floating Rate Interest Period plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Calculation Agent. If five or more of such bid rates or offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, in the event of equality, one of the highest) and the lowest (or, in the event of equality, one of the lowest) will be disregarded by the Calculation Agent for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of such bid rates or offered quotations.

If the Relevant Screen Page is not available or if, in the case of clause (A) above, no bid rate or offered quotation appears or, in the case of clause (B) above, fewer than three bid rates or offered quotations appear, in each case as of the Specified Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Calculation Agent will request each of the Reference Banks to provide the Calculation Agent with its bid rate or offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate at approximately the Specified Time on such Interest Determination Date. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Calculation Agent with such bid rates or offered quotations, the Floating Rate of Interest for the Floating Rate Interest Period will (subject as provided below and, if applicable, to Condition 4(b)(iv) and Condition 4(b)(v)) be the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the bid rates or offered quotations plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Calculation Agent.

If on the relevant Interest Determination Date one only or none of the Reference Banks provides the Calculation Agent with a bid rate or an offered quotation as provided in the preceding paragraph, the Floating Rate of Interest for the relevant Floating Rate Interest Period will (subject, if applicable, to Condition 4(b)(iv) and Condition 4(b)(v)) be the rate per annum that the Calculation Agent determines as being the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the rates, as communicated to (and at the request of) the Calculation Agent by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered, at approximately the Specified Time on such Interest Determination Date, deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in the inter-bank market of the Relevant Financial Center plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any) or, if fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Calculation Agent with offered rates, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, at approximately the Specified Time on such Interest Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the Issuer suitable for the purpose) informs the Calculation Agent it is quoting to leading banks in the inter-bank market of the Relevant Financial Center plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), provided that, if the Floating Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, (x) the Floating Rate of Interest for the relevant Floating Rate Interest Period will (subject, if applicable, to Condition 4(b)(iv)) be determined as of the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Floating Rate Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Floating Rate Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Floating Rate Interest Period) or (y) in the case of the first Floating Rate Interest Period for Notes that are Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes, the Floating Rate of Interest for such Floating Rate Interest Period will be (subject, if applicable, to Condition 4(b)(iv)) equal to the Fixed Rate of Interest.

- (iv) Where Replacement Rate Determination is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, notwithstanding Condition 4(b)(iii), if the Calculation Agent determines at any time that the Reference Rate (the “Existing Rate”) has been discontinued, then it will determine whether to use a substitute or successor rate for purposes of determining the Floating Rate of Interest on each Interest Determination Date falling on or thereafter that it has determined in its sole discretion (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) is most comparable to the Existing Rate had it not been discontinued. If the Calculation Agent determines to use a substitute or successor rate pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, it shall select such rate in its sole discretion (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner), provided that, if it determines that there is an appropriate industry-accepted successor rate to the Existing Rate, it shall select such industry-accepted successor rate. If the Calculation Agent has determined a substitute or successor rate in accordance with the foregoing (such rate, the “Replacement Rate”), for purposes of determining the Floating Rate of Interest, (A) the Calculation Agent will in its sole discretion (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) determine (x) the method for obtaining the Replacement Rate (including any alternative method for determining the Replacement Rate if such substitute or successor rate is unavailable on the relevant Interest Determination Date), which method shall be consistent with industry-accepted practices for the Replacement Rate, and (y) any adjustment factor as may be necessary to make the Replacement Rate comparable to the Existing Rate had it not been discontinued, consistent with industry-accepted practices for the Replacement Rate, (B) references to the Reference Rate in these Conditions will be deemed to be references to the Replacement Rate, including any alternative method for determining such rate and any adjustment factor as described in sub-clause (A) above, (C) if the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) determines that changes to the definitions of Business Day, Day Count Fraction, Interest Determination Date, Reference Banks, Relevant Financial Center, Relevant Screen Page or Specified Time are necessary in order to implement the Replacement Rate as the Reference Rate and/or changes to Condition 4(b)(iii) are necessary to implement any alternative method for determining the Replacement Rate and/or adjustment factor as described in sub-clause (A) above, such definitions and/or Condition will be amended as contemplated in Condition 13(b) to reflect such changes, and (D) the Issuer will give notice or will procure that notice is given as soon as practicable to the Holders and each of the Paying Agents specifying the Replacement Rate, as well as the details described in sub-clause (A) above and the amendments implemented pursuant to Condition 13(b).
- (v) If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Minimum Floating Rate of Interest and/or Maximum Floating Rate of Interest for any Floating Rate Interest Period, then, in the event that the Floating Rate of Interest in respect of such Floating Rate Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of Condition 4(b)(iii) is less than such Minimum Floating Rate of Interest or more than such Maximum Floating Rate of Interest, as the case may be, the Floating Rate of Interest for such Floating Rate Interest Period will be such Minimum Floating Rate of Interest or Maximum Floating Rate of Interest, respectively.
- (vi) With respect to each Floating Rate Interest Period, (A) the Calculation Agent will calculate, as soon as practicable after the Specified Time on the related Interest Determination Date, the Reference Rate and the Floating Rate of Interest for such Floating Rate Interest Period, and (B) the Principal Paying Agent will cause the Floating Rate of Interest for such Floating Rate Interest Period, together with the related Interest Payment Date, to be notified to (1) the Holders in accordance with Condition 12 and (2) any stock exchange or other relevant authority on which the Notes are at the relevant time listed in accordance with the rules and regulations thereof. At the written request of any Holder, the Calculation Agent will provide to such Holder the Floating Rate of Interest in effect at the time of such request and, if already determined, the Floating Rate of Interest that will become effective as of the next Interest Payment Date.
- (vii) If any Notes are to be redeemed pursuant to Condition 5(b), Condition 5(c), Condition 5(d) or Condition 5(e), (A) the Calculation Agent will calculate any interest amount payable on such Notes on the applicable Optional Redemption Date and (B) the Issuer will cause such interest amount to be notified to any stock exchange or other relevant authority on which the Notes are at the relevant time listed and to be published in accordance with Condition 12 no later than two Business Days prior to such Optional Redemption Date.

(c) Zero Coupon Accreting Notes

This clause (c) applies to Zero Coupon Accreting Notes only.

The Notes do not bear interest; provided, however, that, if the Notes become due and payable on the Maturity Date and the Final Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused when due, any overdue principal on the Notes will bear interest (both before and after judgment) at a rate per annum equal to the Accrual Yield to (but excluding) the Relevant Date. Any interest described in the immediately preceding sentence will be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of 12 months of 30 days each and, in the case of an incomplete month, the actual number of days elapsed in such incomplete month (rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit (with one-half sub-unit being rounded upwards)), or such other calculation basis as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(d) Rounding

Unless otherwise specified, all percentages resulting from any calculation of an amount of interest payable in respect of a Note pursuant to this Condition 4 will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (.000001), with five one-millionths of a percentage point rounded upwards.

(e) Deferral, write-down, cancellation and/or conversion of interest

Notwithstanding clauses (a), (b) and (c) of this Condition 4, payment of interest under this Condition 4 is subject to (i) deferral during a Suspension Period pursuant to the ordering of any Restructuring Protective Measures and (ii) any write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of, the principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes pursuant to the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power, in the case of each of clauses (i) and (ii), as described in Condition 10.

5. REDEMPTION AND PURCHASE

(a) Redemption at Maturity

Unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled, the Notes will be redeemed by the Issuer on the Maturity Date at the Final Redemption Amount.

(b) Redemption for Tax Reasons

If the Issuer has or will become obligated to pay Additional Amounts in respect of the Notes as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws (or any regulations or rulings promulgated thereunder) of any Tax Jurisdiction, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws, regulations or rulings, which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the Issue Date, and such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, the Issuer may, having given not less than 30 and not more than 60 days' (or such other minimum and/or maximum period as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms) notice to the Principal Paying Agent and the Holders in accordance with Condition 12 (which notice will, subject to Condition 5(f), be irrevocable and shall specify the applicable Optional Redemption Date), redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, on (i) in the case of any Note that is either a Floating Rate Note or a Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Note and such redemption is during the Floating Rate Period, any Interest Payment Date, and (ii) otherwise, any date, at the Tax Redemption Amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest to (but excluding) the applicable Optional Redemption Date.

(c) Redemption at the Option of the Issuer (Issuer Call)

The applicable Final Terms indicates whether the Notes are subject to redemption prior to the Maturity Date at the option of the Issuer (other than for tax reasons or pursuant to a Make-Whole Redemption or an Ineligibility Issuer Call) (such option, an "Issuer Call"). If the Issuer Call is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, then the Issuer may, having given not less than 10 and not more than 60 days' (or such other minimum and/or maximum period as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms) notice to the Principal Paying Agent and the Holders in accordance with Condition 12 (which notice will, subject to Condition 5(f), be irrevocable and shall specify the applicable Optional Redemption Date and, if any pre-conditions to such redemption are specified in the applicable Final Terms, that such pre-conditions have been met), redeem the Notes, in whole or (subject to the Specified Denomination and any Minimum Redemption Amount and/or Maximum Redemption Amount) in part, on any Issuer Call Redemption Date at the applicable Optional Redemption Amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest to (but excluding) the relevant Optional Redemption Date.

(d) Redemption at the Option of the Issuer (Make-Whole Redemption)

The applicable Final Terms indicates whether the Notes are subject to redemption prior to the Maturity Date at the option of the Issuer (other than for tax reasons or pursuant to an Issuer Call or an Ineligibility Issuer Call) at a Make-Whole Redemption Amount (such option, a “Make-Whole Redemption”). If a Make-Whole Redemption is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, then the Issuer may, having given not less than 10 and not more than 60 days’ (or such other minimum and/or maximum period as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms) notice to the Principal Paying Agent and the Holders in accordance with Condition 12 (which notice, subject to Condition 5(f), will be irrevocable and shall specify the applicable Optional Redemption Date), redeem the Notes, in whole or (subject to the Specified Denomination and any Minimum Redemption Amount and/or Maximum Redemption Amount) in part, on any Make-Whole Redemption Date at the applicable Make-Whole Redemption Amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest to (but excluding) the relevant Optional Redemption Date.

(e) Redemption at the Option of the Issuer upon an Ineligibility Event (Ineligibility Issuer Call)

The applicable Final Terms indicates whether the Notes are subject to redemption prior to the Maturity Date at the option of the Issuer (other than for tax reasons or pursuant to an Issuer Call or a Make-Whole Redemption) upon the occurrence of an Ineligibility Event (such option, an “Ineligibility Issuer Call”). If an Ineligibility Issuer Call is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, then the Issuer may, having given not less than 10 and not more than 60 days’ (or such other minimum and/or maximum period as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms) notice to the Principal Paying Agent and the Holders in accordance with Condition 12 (which notice, subject to Condition 5(f), will be irrevocable and shall specify the applicable Optional Redemption Date), redeem the Notes, in whole or (subject to the Specified Denomination and any Minimum Redemption Amount and/or Maximum Redemption Amount) in part, on (i) in the case of any Note that is either a Floating Rate Note or a Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Note and such redemption is during the Floating Rate Period, any Interest Payment Date, and (ii) otherwise, any date, at the Ineligibility Event Redemption Amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest to (but excluding) the applicable Optional Redemption Date.

An “Ineligibility Event” has occurred if a change in the Capital Adequacy Ordinance and/or FSB TLAC Standard occurs after the Issue Date having the effect that the entire principal amount of the Notes ceases to be eligible to be treated as both (i) debt instruments for loss absorbency in the course of insolvency measures (Schuldinstrumente zur Verlusttragung bei Insolvenzmassnahmen) under the Capital Adequacy Ordinance and (ii) External TLAC under the FSB TLAC Standard.

(f) Conditions to Redemption

Notwithstanding Condition 5(b), Condition 5(c), Condition 5(d) and Condition 5(e),

- (i) any redemption of the Notes under this Condition 5 is subject to any write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of, the principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes pursuant to the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power and, in the case of Condition 5(a), to deferral during a Suspension Period pursuant to the ordering of any Restructuring Protective Measures;
- (ii) if the Issuer has given a notice of redemption pursuant to Condition 5(b), Condition 5(c), Condition 5(d) or Condition 5(e), but, prior to payment of the Tax Redemption Amount, the applicable Optional Redemption Amount, the Make-Whole Redemption Amount or the Ineligibility Event Redemption Amount, as applicable, with respect to such redemption, CSG Restructuring Proceedings are opened, then such notice of redemption will be automatically rescinded and will be of no force and effect, such redemption will be cancelled, payment of the Tax Redemption Amount, the applicable Optional Redemption Amount, the Make-Whole Redemption Amount or the Ineligibility Event Redemption Amount, as applicable, in respect of such redemption will no longer be due and payable and no such redemption of the relevant Notes will take place; and

- (iii) the Issuer may only redeem the Notes pursuant to Condition 5(b), Condition 5(c), Condition 5(d) or Condition 5(e) if the Regulator has approved such redemption on or prior to the relevant Optional Redemption Date, if such approval is then required under applicable Swiss banking laws applicable to the Issuer from time to time.

(g) Partial Redemption at the Option of the Issuer

If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed pursuant to Condition 5(c), Condition 5(d) or Condition 5(e), the Principal Paying Agent will select, pro rata, by lot or in such manner as it deems appropriate and fair, the Notes to be redeemed in whole or in part. Any such partial redemption must be of an aggregate principal amount of Notes not less than the Minimum Redemption Amount and not more than the Maximum Redemption Amount, if any.

(h) Purchases

Subject to the prior approval of the Regulator if then required under Swiss banking laws applicable to the Issuer from time to time, the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates may at any time purchase or procure others to purchase beneficially for its account Notes in any manner and at any price. Notes so purchased may, at the Issuer's discretion, be held, resold or surrendered to the Principal Paying Agent for cancellation.

(i) Cancellation

All Notes redeemed by the Issuer pursuant to this Condition 5 will immediately be cancelled and may not be reissued or resold. All Notes purchased and surrendered to the Principal Paying Agent pursuant to Condition 5(h) will immediately be cancelled upon surrender and may not be reissued or resold.

6. PAYMENTS

- (a) All payments required to be made under the Notes will be made available in good time in freely disposable funds in the Specified Currency, which will be placed at the free disposal of the Principal Paying Agent on behalf of the Holders.
- (b) All payments required to be made under the Notes (including, without limitation, any Additional Amounts) will be made to the Holders in the Specified Currency without collection costs, without any restrictions and whatever the circumstances may be, irrespective of nationality, domicile or residence of the relevant Holder and without certification, affidavit or the fulfillment of any other formality.
- (c) The receipt by the Principal Paying Agent of the due and punctual payment of funds in the Specified Currency will release the Issuer from its obligations under the Notes to the extent of such payment.
- (d) If the Scheduled Due Date for any payment (whether in respect of principal, interest or otherwise) in respect of the Notes is not a Business Day, then the Holders will not be entitled to payment thereof until the first Business Day immediately following the Scheduled Due Date, and the Holders will not be entitled to any further interest or other payment in respect of such delay.

7. TAXATION

- (a) All payments of principal and interest to Holders by or on behalf of the Issuer in respect of the Notes (including, for the avoidance of doubt, amounts paid by a Paying Agent) will be made without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by any governmental or other taxing authority, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In the event that any payment to be made by or on behalf of the Issuer in respect of the Notes (including, for the avoidance of doubt, amounts paid by a Paying Agent) is subject to any such withholding or deduction imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by a Tax Jurisdiction, the Issuer will pay such additional amounts as are necessary so that the net payment received by the Holders after such withholding or deduction is equal to the amount that would otherwise have been received by the Holders in the absence of such withholding or deduction (“Additional Amounts”).

- (b) No Additional Amounts will be payable pursuant to clause (a) of this Condition 7 in relation to any Note for or on account of:
 - (i) any such taxes, duties, assessments or other governmental charges imposed in respect of such Note by reason of the Holder thereof having some connection with a Tax Jurisdiction other than the mere holding of such Note; or
 - (ii) any such taxes, duties, assessments or other governmental charges imposed in respect of such Note required to be made pursuant to laws enacted by Switzerland changing the Swiss withholding tax system from an issuer-based system to a paying agent-based system pursuant to which a person in Switzerland other than the issuer is required to withhold tax on any interest payments; or
 - (iii) where such withholding or deduction is imposed on any payment by reason of FATCA; or
 - (iv) any combination of two or more items described in sub-clauses (i) through (iii) above.
- (c) Payments on the Notes will be subject in all cases to any withholding or deduction required pursuant to FATCA.
- (d) Any reference in the Conditions to amounts payable by the Issuer in respect of the Notes includes any Additional Amounts payable pursuant to this Condition 7.

8. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

In accordance with Swiss law, claims for payment of principal and interest under the Notes will become time-barred unless made within a period of ten years (in the case of principal) and five years (in the case of interest) after the date on which such payment first became due and payable.

9. EVENTS OF DEFAULT

If any of the following events (each an Event of Default) occurs and is continuing:

- (a) the Issuer fails to pay in the Specified Currency any interest on any of the Notes when due and such failure continues for a period of 30 days; or
- (b) the Issuer fails to pay in the Specified Currency the principal of any of the Notes when due and such failure continues for a period of 10 days; or
- (c) the Issuer does not perform or comply with any one or more of its other obligations under the Notes, which default is not remedied within 60 days after notice of such default has been given to the Principal Paying Agent at its Specified Office by any Holder; or
- (d) (i) the Issuer is (or is deemed by a court of competent jurisdiction to be) insolvent or bankrupt or unable to pay its debts as they fall due, makes a general assignment or an arrangement or composition with or for the benefit of its creditors generally or a moratorium is agreed or declared in respect of the debts of the Issuer; or
 - (ii) the Issuer commences a voluntary case or proceeding under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar law to be adjudicated insolvent or bankrupt, or consents to the entry of a decree or order for relief in any involuntary case or proceeding under any such law; or
- (e) an order is made or an effective resolution passed for the winding-up or dissolution of the Issuer except for the purpose of and followed by a reconstruction, amalgamation, reorganization, merger or consolidation where all of the assets of the Issuer, are transferred to, and all of its debts and liabilities are assumed by, a continuing entity,

then the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes may, by notice in writing given to the Principal Paying Agent at its Specified Office, declare all the Notes to be immediately due and payable, whereupon they will become immediately due and payable at (x) in the case of Zero Coupon Accreting Notes, the Amortized Face Amount as of the later of (A) such date that the Notes become due and payable pursuant to this Condition 9, and (B) the Relevant Date, and (y) otherwise, 100% of their principal amount together with accrued interest, in each case, without further formality unless such Event of Default has been remedied prior to the receipt of such notice by the Principal Paying Agent; provided, however, that, none of (i) the opening of CSG Restructuring Proceedings, (ii) the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer that requires or results in any write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of, the principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes, (iii) the ordering of any Restructuring Protective Measures that require or result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest under the Notes and (iv) any consequences resulting from any of the foregoing, will constitute an Event of Default. However, any consequences resulting from any Non-Restructuring Protective Measures that would otherwise constitute an Event of Default will constitute an Event of Default.

Upon the Notes becoming immediately due and payable under this Condition 9, the Issuer will give notice of this fact to the Holders in accordance with Condition 12.

10. SWISS SUSPENSION POWER AND RESTRUCTURING PROTECTIVE MEASURES AND SUSPENSION PERIOD

(a) Swiss Resolution Power and Restructuring Protective Measures

By its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder acknowledges, agrees to be bound by and consents to the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer (without prior notice being given by the Swiss Resolution Authority of its decision to exercise such Swiss Resolution Power) that results in the write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of the, principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes, irrespective of whether such amounts have already become due and payable prior to the exercise of such action. In addition, by its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder acknowledges, agrees to be bound by, and consents to the ordering of any Restructuring Protective Measures (without prior notice being given by the Swiss Resolution Authority of its decision to order such Restructuring Protective Measures) that result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest on the Notes. By its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder further acknowledges, agrees and consents that its rights are subject to, and if necessary, will be altered without such Holder's consent, including by means of an amendment or modification to the Conditions so as to give effect to any such exercise of Swiss Resolution Power or any such ordering of Restructuring Protective Measures. Such acknowledgement, agreement and consent does not qualify as a waiver of the rights, procedural or otherwise, existing for creditors generally, and a Holder specifically, under the applicable banking regulation pursuant to which any Swiss Resolution Power is exercised.

By its acquisition of the Notes, each Holder further automatically and irrevocably waives its right to claim or receive and will not have any rights against the Issuer with respect to repayment of any principal and/or accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes that is written-down and cancelled or converted into equity of the Issuer as a result of the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power. Following the occurrence of any write-down and cancellation or conversion into equity of the Issuer of all or any portion of the principal and/or interest on the Notes, the aggregate principal amount of the Notes and/or any interest thereon subject to such write-down or conversion will be cancelled and no further principal or interest will be due and payable and no Event of Default will thereafter exist with respect to the amount by which such principal amount of the Notes and/or any interest on the Notes is so written-down or converted and cancelled.

No payment of principal or interest under the Notes will become due and payable after (i) the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer that results in the write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of the, principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes or (ii) the ordering of any Restructuring Protective Measures that require or result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest under the Notes, in the case of each of clauses (i) and (ii), unless at the time of such payment it would be permitted to be made by the Issuer under the laws and regulations of Switzerland then applicable to the Issuer.

(b) Suspension Period

If the Swiss Resolution Authority orders any Restructuring Protective Measures requiring the deferral, but not cancellation, of the payment of any principal amount of the Notes due, or that would otherwise become due, and/or any interest due, or which would otherwise become due, on the Notes, such payment will be deferred, but not cancelled, for the duration of the applicable Suspension Period. Interest payments on the Notes will be cumulative, so that following the termination of a Suspension Period, the Issuer will be required to make any payment of principal that was due or became due and/or accrued and unpaid interest that was deferred during such Suspension Period (but only to the extent such principal and/or accrued and unpaid interest was not subsequently fully or partially written-down and cancelled and/or converted into equity of the Issuer during such Suspension Period through the exercise of a Swiss Resolution Power).

Any payment of principal and/or interest that was due or became due, or which would otherwise have become due, but was not paid prior to or during any Suspension Period in accordance with the first sentence of this Condition 10(b) will be payable (without interest on such previously due and unpaid amounts and only to the extent such principal and/or interest was not subsequently fully or partially written-down and cancelled and/or converted into equity of the Issuer during such Suspension Period) on the later of (x) the first succeeding Interest Payment Date after the date on which such Suspension Period ends and (y) the date that is 15 Business Days after the date on which such Suspension Period ends. The deferral of any payment of principal or interest in accordance with this Condition 10(b) will not constitute a default or Event of Default.

(c) Notice of Events

The Issuer shall provide written notice as soon as practicable to Holders in accordance with Condition 12 upon the occurrence of (i) the opening of CSG Restructuring Proceedings, (ii) the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power that affects, or may affect, the Notes, (iii) the ordering of any Protective Measures that affect, or may affect, the Notes, or (iv) the conclusion of any Suspension Period.

11. AGENTS

- (a) The Issuer reserves the right to terminate the appointment of any Agent, as well as to appoint or, after any such appointment, to terminate the appointment of, one or more other paying agents to carry out any payment functions in respect of the Notes (each, a “Paying Agent”, which term includes the Principal Paying Agent), provided that (i) so long as any Note is outstanding, there will at all times be a Principal Paying Agent, (ii) in the case of Notes listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange, for so long as the Notes are listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange, the Issuer shall maintain a Paying Agent in Switzerland, which agent will have an office in Switzerland and be a bank or securities dealer subject to supervision by FINMA, to perform the functions of a Swiss paying agent, and (iii)(x) in the case of Notes that are Floating Rate Notes or Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes and/or subject to a Make-Whole Redemption, there will at all times be a Calculation Agent and any successor Calculation Agent must be a leading bank or financial institution that is experienced in the calculations or determinations to be made by the Calculation Agent.
- (b) All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of Condition 4 or Condition 5(d) will (in the absence of willful misconduct, bad faith and manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents and all Holders, and (in the absence of willful misconduct, bad faith and gross negligence) no liability to the Issuer or the Holders will attach to the Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers and duties under Condition 4 or in connection with the calculation of the Make-Whole Redemption Amount for purposes of Condition 5(d). The Calculation Agent will not be responsible to the Issuer, the Holders or any other Person (i) for failure by the Issuer or any other Person to fulfill their respective duties or meet their respective obligations with respect to the Notes, (ii) for obtaining quotations from any banks in connection with any determination to be made by the Calculation Agent in respect of the Notes, or (iii) as a result of the Calculation Agent having acted on any quotation or other information obtained from or provided by the Issuer or any other Person or source that is subsequently found to be incorrect. The Calculation Agent will not be liable for any error resulting from the use of or reliance on a source of information used in good faith and with due care to make any calculation in respect of the Notes.
- (c) In acting under the Agency Agreement, the Agents act solely as agents of the Issuer and do not assume any obligation to, or relationship of agency or trust with, any Holders.

12. NOTICES

- (a) Notes listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange

In the case of Notes that are listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange, notices to Holders will be given by the Principal Paying Agent (i) by means of electronic publication on the internet website of the SIX Swiss Exchange (www.six-swiss-exchange.com), where notices are currently published under the address www.six-swiss-exchange.com/news/official_notices/search_en.html, or (ii) otherwise in accordance with the regulations of the SIX Swiss Exchange. Any notice will be deemed to be validly given on the date of such publication or, if published more than once, on the date of the first such publication.

If the Notes are for any reason no longer listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange, notices to Holders will be given through the Principal Paying Agent to the Intermediary for forwarding to the Holders, which notice will be deemed to be validly given on the date of the communication to the Intermediary.

(b) Notes not listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange

In the case of Notes that are not listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange, notices to Holders will be given by the Issuer in the manner specified in the applicable Final Terms.

13. MEETINGS OF HOLDERS AND AMENDMENT

(a) Meetings of Holders

The provisions on bondholder meetings contained in article 1157 et seq. of the Swiss Federal Code of Obligations apply in relation to meetings of Holders.

(b) Amendment

Subject to the mandatory provisions of Swiss law, the Issuer may, without the consent or approval of the Holders, make such amendments to the terms of the Notes that (i) the Issuer considers necessary or desirable to give effect to any Replacement Rate determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to Condition 4(b)(iv), or (ii) in the Issuer's opinion are (x) of a formal, minor or technical nature or made to correct a manifest or proven error, or (y) not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders.

The Issuer shall notify the Holders of any amendments made pursuant to this Condition 13(b) in accordance with Condition 12, which notice shall state the date on which such amendment will be effective.

14. NO SET-OFF

Subject to applicable law, each Holder, by its acquisition of the Notes, agrees that it is not entitled to exercise, claim or plead any right of set-off, compensation or retention or netting arrangement in respect of any amount payable to it by the Issuer in respect of, or arising under or in connection with, the Notes, and that it has waived all such rights of set-off, compensation or retention, or in respect of such netting arrangement, whether arising before or during any CSG Restructuring Proceedings or any winding up of the Issuer.

15. CURRENCY INDEMNITY

The Specified Currency is the sole currency of account and payment for all amounts payable by the Issuer under or in connection with the Notes, including damages. Any amount received or recovered in a currency other than the Specified Currency (whether as a result of, or of the enforcement of, a judgment or order of a court of any jurisdiction, in the winding up or dissolution of the Issuer or otherwise) by any Holder in respect of any amount owed by the Issuer to such Holder under the Notes will only constitute a discharge to the Issuer to the extent of the amount in the Specified Currency that such Holder is able to purchase with the amount so received or recovered in such other currency on the date of such receipt or recovery (or, if it is not practicable to make such purchase on such date, on the first date on which it is practicable to do so). If that amount in the Specified Currency that such Holder is able to purchase is less than the amount in the Specified Currency owed by the Issuer to such Holder under the Notes, the Issuer shall indemnify such Holder against any loss sustained by it as a result. In addition, the Issuer shall indemnify such Holder against the cost of making any such purchase. For the purposes of this Condition 15, it will be sufficient for the Holder to demonstrate that it would have suffered a loss had an actual purchase been made. The indemnities under this Condition 15 (i) will constitute a separate and independent obligation from the Issuer's other obligations hereunder,

(ii) give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, (iii) apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Holder and (iv) continue in full force and effect despite any other judgment, order, claim or proof for a liquidated amount in respect of any amount due under any Note or any other judgment or order.

16. FURTHER ISSUES

The Issuer may from time to time without the consent of the Holders issue further notes and, provided that such notes have the same terms and conditions as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the issue date, first date on which interest is paid and/or first date on which interest begins to accrue), such further notes will be consolidated and form a single Series with the Notes.

17. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

(a) Governing Law

The Conditions and the Notes are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of Switzerland.

(b) Jurisdiction

Any dispute that might arise based on the Conditions or the Notes will fall within the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the City of Zurich and, if permitted, the Commercial Court of the Canton of Zurich, the place of jurisdiction being Zurich 1.

The above-mentioned jurisdiction is also exclusively valid for the declaration of cancellation of the Notes.

CREDIT SUISSE GROUP AG

Structure and Business of the Issuer

The Issuer is a holding company for financial services companies that is domiciled in Switzerland.

The Group's strategy builds on its core strengths: its position as a leading global wealth manager, its specialist investment banking capabilities and its strong presence in its home market of Switzerland. The Group seeks to follow a balanced approach to wealth management, aiming to capitalize on both the large pool of wealth within mature markets as well as the significant growth in wealth in Asia Pacific and other emerging markets. Founded in 1856, the Group today has a global reach with operations in about 50 countries and 46,840 employees from over 150 different nations. The Group's broad footprint helps it to generate a geographically balanced stream of revenues and net new assets and allows it to capture growth opportunities around the world. The Group serves its clients through three regionally focused divisions: Swiss Universal Bank, International Wealth Management ("IWM") and Asia Pacific. These regional businesses are supported by two other divisions specializing in investment banking capabilities: Global Markets and Investment Banking & Capital Markets. The Strategic Resolution Unit ("SRU") consolidates the remaining portfolios from the former non-strategic units plus additional businesses and positions that do not fit with the Group's strategic direction. The Group's business divisions cooperate closely to provide holistic financial solutions, including innovative products and specially tailored advice.

For information regarding the evolution of the Group's legal entity structure, refer to "I—Information on the company—Strategy—Evolution of legal entity structure" in the Annual Report 2017.

Swiss Universal Bank

The Swiss Universal Bank division offers comprehensive advice and a wide range of financial solutions to private, corporate and institutional clients primarily domiciled in the Group's home market of Switzerland, which offers attractive growth opportunities and where the Group can build on a strong market position across its key businesses. The Group's Private Clients business has a leading franchise in its Swiss home market and serves ultra-high-net-worth individuals, high-net-worth individuals, affluent and retail clients. The Group's Wealth Management & Connected business combines its activities in wealth management with its financing, underwriting and advisory activities. The Group's Markets business represents its equities and fixed income trading business in Asia Pacific, which supports its wealth management activities, but also deals extensively with a broader range of institutional clients.

Global Markets

The Global Markets division offers a broad range of financial products and services to client-driven businesses and also supports the Group's global wealth management businesses and their clients. The Group's suite of products and services includes global securities sales, trading and execution, prime brokerage and comprehensive investment research. The Group's clients include financial institutions, corporations, governments, institutional investors, such as pension funds and hedge funds, and private individuals around the world.

The division also engages in debt and equity underwriting of public securities offerings and private placements.

Strategic Resolution Unit

The SRU was created to facilitate the immediate right-sizing of the Group's business divisions from a capital perspective and includes remaining portfolios from former non-strategic units plus transfers of additional exposures from the business divisions. The unit's primary focus is on facilitating the rapid wind-down of capital usage and costs to reduce the negative impact on the Group's performance. SWITZERLAND

Swiss Withholding Tax

Each Tranche of Notes will qualify for a statutory exemption under the Swiss Withholding Tax Act of October 13, 1965 (Bundesgesetz über die Verrechnungssteuer vom 13. Oktober 1965), pursuant to which interest payments by the Issuer in respect of such Notes will be exempt from Swiss withholding tax (Verrechnungssteuer). In order for any Tranche of Notes to qualify for such exemption, the Swiss Resolution Authority must have (i) the power to exercise Swiss Resolution Powers with respect to such Notes and (ii) approved the Notes for purposes of meeting regulatory requirements. In respect of each Tranche of Notes to be issued, the Issuer will obtain such approval from the Swiss Resolution Authority prior to the relevant Issue Date and, on the basis of such approval, will obtain from the Swiss Tax Administration confirmation on the qualification of the Notes for the statutory withholding tax exemption.

On November 4, 2015, the Swiss Federal Council announced that it had mandated the Swiss Federal Finance Department to appoint a group of experts to prepare a proposal for a reform of the Swiss withholding tax system. The proposal is expected to, among other things, replace the debtor-based regime applicable to interest payments with a paying agent-based regime for Swiss withholding tax. This paying agent-based regime is expected to be similar to the one contained in the draft legislation published by the Swiss Federal Council on December 17, 2014, which was subsequently withdrawn on June 24, 2015. Further, on October 23, 2017, the Swiss Federal Economic Affairs and Taxation Committee of the Swiss National Council filed a parliamentary initiative reintroducing the request to replace the current debtor-based regime applicable to interest payments with a paying agent-based system for Swiss withholding tax. The initiative requests a paying agent-based system that (i) subjects all interest payments made by paying agents in Switzerland to individuals resident in Switzerland to Swiss withholding tax and (ii) provides an exemption from Swiss withholding tax for interest payments to all other persons (including Swiss corporations). If such a new paying agent-based regime were to be enacted and were to result in the deduction or withholding of Swiss withholding tax on any interest payments in respect of a Note by any person other than the Issuer, the holder of such Note would not be entitled to receive any Additional Amounts as a result of such deduction or withholding under the Conditions.

Swiss Stamp Duties

The issuance and sale of the Notes on the Issue Date are not subject to Swiss federal securities turnover tax (Umsatzabgabe) (primary market). Secondary market dealings in Notes with a term in excess of 12 months may be subject to the Swiss securities turnover tax at a rate of up to 0.15% of the purchase price of the Notes, however, only if a securities dealer in Switzerland or Liechtenstein, as defined in the Swiss Federal Act on Stamp Duties (Bundesgesetz über die Stempelabgaben), is a party or an intermediary to the transaction and no exemption applies. An exemption applies, inter alia, for each party to a transaction in Notes that is not resident in Switzerland or Liechtenstein.

Swiss Income Taxation on Principal or Interest

Notes Held by Non-Swiss Holders

Payments of interest (including discount, if any) and repayment of principal by the Issuer to, and gain realized on the sale or redemption of a Note by, a holder of a Note who is not a resident of Switzerland and who during the current taxation year has not engaged in a trade or business through a permanent establishment in Switzerland to which such Note is attributable will, in respect of such Note, not be subject to any Swiss federal, cantonal or communal income.

For a discussion of the potential new Swiss withholding tax legislation that would replace the current issuer-based withholding tax system for a paying-agent based withholding tax system, see above under “—Swiss Withholding Tax”, for a discussion of the automatic exchange of information in tax matters, see below under “—Automatic Exchange of Information in Tax Matters” and for a discussion of the Swiss facilitation of the implementation of the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, see below under “—Swiss Facilitation of the Implementation of the U.S. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act”.

Notes Held as Private Assets by Swiss Holders

Floating Rate Notes, Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Notes and Fixed Rate Step-Up Notes: The yield-to-maturity of a Floating Rate Note, a Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Note or a Fixed Rate Step-Up Note is predominantly derived from periodic interest payments and not from a one-time-interest-payment such as an original issue discount (see below “—Zero Coupon Accreting Notes”). A holder of a Floating Rate Note, a Fixed Rate/Floating Rate Note or a Fixed Rate Step-Up Note who is an individual resident in Switzerland and who holds such Note as a private asset is required to include any periodic interest payments and any one-time interest payment upon redemption relating to an original issue discount on such Note in his or her personal income tax return for the relevant tax period, converted, as the case may be, from the Specified Currency into Swiss francs at the exchange rate prevailing at the time of payment, and will be taxable on any net taxable income (including the payments of interest on such Note) for such tax period. A gain (including a gain in respect of interest accrued or a change in foreign currency exchange rate or market interest rate) on the sale of such a Note is a tax-free private capital gain, and a loss realized on a sale of such a Note, or a loss resulting from write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of the, principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes, following the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer, or by the ordering of, any Restructuring Protective Measures that result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest under the Notes, is a non-tax-deductible private capital loss.

Zero Coupon Accreting Notes: Zero Coupon Accreting Notes are classified as notes with a “predominant one-time interest payment”, the yield-to-maturity of which is derived from a one-time-interest-payment in the form of original issue discount and not from periodic interest payments. A holder of a Zero Coupon Accreting Note who is an individual resident in Switzerland and who holds such Note as a private asset, is required to include in his or her personal income tax return for the relevant tax period any amount equal to the difference between (i) the Final Redemption Amount for such Note, or, in the case of early redemption of such Note, the applicable early redemption amount, or, in the case of a sale of such Note before redemption (whether on the Maturity Date, upon early redemption or otherwise), the value of such Note at sale, as applicable, and (ii) the Amortized Face Amount of such Note on the applicable Issue Date minus original issue discount, if any, or, in case of purchase of such Note after the Issue Date, the value of such Note at the time of such secondary market purchase, as applicable, converted, in each case, as the case may be, from the Specified Currency into Swiss francs at the exchange rate prevailing at the time of redemption or sale, or issuance or purchase, as applicable, and will be taxable on any net taxable income (including such amounts, i.e., including, if any, a gain in respect of interest accrued or a change in foreign currency exchange rate or market interest rate) for the relevant tax period. Any loss realized on the sale or redemption of such a Note may be offset by such a holder against a gain (including, in respect of a change in foreign currency exchange rate or market interest rate realized on the sale or redemption of, such other instruments) realized by the holder within the same taxation period from other instruments with a predominant one-time interest payment.

See “—Notes held as Swiss business assets” below for a summary of the tax treatment of individuals classified as “professional securities dealers”.

Notes Held as Swiss Business Assets (including by Private Persons Classified as Professional Securities Dealers)

Individuals who hold Notes as part of a business in Switzerland and Swiss resident corporate taxpayers and corporate taxpayers resident abroad holding Notes as part of a permanent establishment in Switzerland, are required to recognize the payments of interest (including discount, if any) and a gain realized on the sale or redemption of Notes (including a gain, if any, inter alia, relating to discount or premium, interest accrued, or foreign currency exchange rate appreciation or change in market interest rate) and a loss on the Notes, including a loss resulting from write-down and cancellation and/or conversion into equity of the Issuer of the entire, or a portion of the, principal amount of, and/or accrued interest on, the Notes, following the exercise of any Swiss Resolution Power with respect to the Issuer, or by the ordering of, any Restructuring Protective Measures that result in the deferment of payment of principal and/or interest under the Notes, or, as the case may be, from a foreign currency exchange rate devaluation or change in market interest rate, in their income statement for the respective tax period and will be taxable on any net taxable earnings for such period. The same taxation treatment also applies to Swiss resident individuals who, for income tax purposes, are classified as “professional securities dealers” for reasons of, inter alia, frequent dealings and leveraged investments in securities.

Automatic Exchange of Information in Tax Matters

Switzerland has concluded a multilateral agreement with the EU on the international automatic exchange of information (“AEOI”) in tax matters, which applies to all 28 EU member states and some other jurisdictions. Further, Switzerland has signed the multilateral competent authority agreement on the automatic exchange of financial account information (the “MCAA”), and based on the MCAA, a number of bilateral AEOI agreements with other countries. Based on such agreements and the implementing laws of Switzerland, depending on the date of effectiveness of the applicable agreement, Switzerland began in 2017, or will begin at a later date, to collect data in respect of financial assets (including Notes) held in, and income derived thereon and credited to, accounts or deposits with a paying agent in Switzerland for the benefit of individuals resident in a EU member state or resident in a treaty state, and began in 2018, or will at a later date begin, as the case may be, to exchange it with the authorities in the relevant jurisdiction. In addition, Switzerland intends to sign AEOI agreements with additional countries. An up-to-date list of the AEOI agreements to which Switzerland is a party, and the date on which data collection and data exchange under each such agreement begins, can be found on the website of the State Secretariat for International Financial Matters SIF.

Swiss Facilitation of the Implementation of the U.S. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Switzerland has concluded an intergovernmental agreement with the U.S. to facilitate the implementation of FATCA. The agreement ensures that the accounts held by U.S. persons with Swiss financial institutions are disclosed to the U.S. tax authorities either with the consent of the account holder or by means of group requests within the scope of administrative assistance. Information will not be transferred automatically in the absence of consent, and instead will be exchanged only within the scope of administrative assistance on the basis of the double taxation agreement between the U.S. and Switzerland.

TAIWAN

Interest on the Notes

As the Issuer of the Notes is not a Taiwanese statutory tax withholder, there is no Taiwanese withholding tax on the interest or deemed interest to be paid on the Notes.

Payments of interest or deemed interest under the Notes to a Taiwanese individual holder are not subject to Taiwan income tax as such payments received by them are not considered to be Taiwan-sourced income. However, such holder must include the interest or deemed interest in calculating their basic income for the purpose of calculating their alternative minimum tax (“AMT”), unless the sum of the interest or deemed interest and other non-Taiwan-sourced income received by such holder and the person(s) who is (are) required to jointly file the tax return in a calendar year is below 1 million New Taiwan Dollar (“NT$”). If the amount of the AMT exceeds the annual income tax calculated pursuant to the ROC Income Basic Tax Act (also known as the “AMT Act”), the excess becomes such holder’s AMT payable.

Taiwanese corporate holders must include the interest receivable or deemed interest receivable under the Notes as part of their taxable income and pay income tax at a flat rate of 17% (unless the total taxable income for a fiscal year is under NT$120,000), as they are subject to income tax on their worldwide income on an accrual basis. The AMT is not applicable.

Sale of the Notes

In general, the sale of corporate bonds or financial bonds is subject to a 0.1% securities transaction tax (“STT”) on the transaction price. However, Article 2-1 of the Securities Transaction Tax Act of Taiwan prescribes that STT will cease to be levied on the sale of corporate bonds and financial bonds from January 1, 2010 to December 31, 2026. Therefore, the sale of the Notes will be exempt from STT if the sale is conducted on or before December 31, 2026. Starting from January 1, 2027, any sale of the Notes will be subject to STT at 0.1% of the transaction price, unless otherwise provided by the tax laws that may be in force at that time.

Capital gains generated from the sale of bonds are exempt from income tax. Accordingly, Taiwanese individual and corporate holders are not subject to income tax on any capital gains generated from the sale of the Notes. In addition, Taiwanese individual holders are not subject to AMT on any capital gains generated from the sale of the Notes. However, Taiwanese corporate holders should include the capital gains in calculating their basic income for the purpose of calculating their AMT. If the amount of the AMT exceeds the annual income tax calculated pursuant to the AMT Act, the excess becomes the Taiwanese corporate holders' AMT payable. Capital losses, if any, incurred by such holders could be carried over five years to offset against capital gains of same category of income for the purposes of calculating their AMT.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

The Dealers have, in a dealer agreement (as the same may be supplemented, amended and/or restated from time to time, the “Dealer Agreement”) dated January 30, 2018, agreed with the Issuer a basis upon which they or any of them may from time to time agree to purchase Notes. In the Dealer Agreement, the Issuer has agreed to indemnify the Dealers against certain liabilities incurred by them in connection therewith.

United States

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States and may not be offered or sold within the United States or, if Category 2 is specified in the applicable Final Terms, to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in certain transactions exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act.

If Category 2 is specified in the applicable Final Terms, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Program will be required to represent and agree, that it will not offer, sell or deliver Notes (a) as part of their distribution at any time or (b) otherwise until 40 days after the completion of the distribution, as determined and certified by the relevant Dealer or, in the case of an issue of Notes on a syndicated basis, the relevant lead manager, of all Notes of the Tranche of which such Notes are a part, within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in accordance with Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act. Each Dealer has further agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Program will be required to agree, that it will send to each dealer to which it sells any Notes during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act.

Accordingly, if Category 1 is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Notes are being offered and sold only outside the United States in offshore transactions in reliance on, and in compliance with, Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act.

Until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of any Tranche of Notes, an offer or sale of such Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with an available exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act.

Each of Credit Suisse International and Credit Suisse AG is an affiliate of the Issuer and may (but is not obligated to) engage in secondary market transactions for purposes of making a market in the Notes.
